

Teacher of Music with responsibility for peripatetic teachers From August 2025

JOB OVERVIEW

We are seeking a full-time Teacher of Music to inspire students in both Junior and Senior Schools. The role primarily involves delivering engaging music lessons across a range of abilities and ages, while also overseeing our peripatetic teaching team. Responsibilities include encouraging musical expression through ensembles and groups, administering private lessons and managing peripatetic teachers, collaborating with the Arts Faculty on school productions, and actively participating in extracurricular activities and weekend events. A fully qualified teacher with at least two years of experience in international education, as well as a musician proficient in teaching at least two instruments to a high level, is required.

Music at Le Régent International School

At Le Régent, students In Kindergarten to Grade 8 receive one or two periods of Music per week, complemented by extracurricular opportunities such as choirs, bands, orchestras, instrumental lessons, and other optional clubs. From Grade 9, Music becomes an option in pre-IB, the IB Diploma, or the Le Régent Certificate pathway.

With the adoption of the IPC and transition to the IMYC, Music will integrate recognised pedagogies with progressive, hands-on approaches and transdisciplinary opportunities. In secondary school, the curriculum aligns with IB Music, ensuring a seamless transition to the Diploma. Music technology and production are key components, alongside internationally recognised instrumental qualifications (ABRSM, Trinity College London), supporting students' development as performers, creators, and leaders in all musical genres.

LE RÉGENT INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

In the heart of the Swiss Alps at 1,500 metres in an exceptional mountain environment, Le Régent students experience  $h^3$ , a multi-dimensional education that engages the head, heart and hands. Empowered to discover their talents and passion for life, they are challenged with demanding academic and outdoor education curricula that develop their intellect, nurture character development, and equip them with practical skills.

Our educational approach is rooted in intercultural understanding, with student well-being at the core of everything we do. In a highly international, close-knit community with a family-like atmosphere, our students have countless opportunities to take on leadership roles and grow into responsible global citizens eager to shape the future with confidence. By the time they leave Le Régent, they are more knowledgeable about themselves and the world at large, as well as responsible, resilient, caring, and prepared for life beyond school.

Pastoral care is at the heart of everything we do. Our dedicated academic and pastoral teams work hand in hand to create a nurturing, welcoming environment where every student feels valued, supported, and empowered to flourish. For our boarders, this means a true home away from home—where they are encouraged to explore their passions, develop their talents, and build meaningful, lifelong connections with both peers and educators.

Our 2024 IB results continued to surpass the global average and our graduates continue to earn places at prestigious universities worldwide.
