

Ralph Allen School Headteacher

How to apply

There are two parts to this application:

1. Complete the application form
2. Write a letter

In this letter, we are looking for a piece of writing that shares your unique experience and leadership orientation. We are looking for someone who understands that we want something special. Please write more about what you have learned about yourself than what you have done.

Please write no more than 1000 words in total covering the following headings.

1. The story of your leadership learning. What have you learnt about your capacities and capabilities? What is there still to learn?
2. An account of a significant change which you have led.
3. What sense are you making of Ralph Allen School from what you know so far of the school and its context? What are your concerns and what excites you?

We look forward to reading your application.
