 The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or a caution should be disclosed can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website:*

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-filtering-guidance> and the Ministry of Justice website.

I hereby declare that I am not on the DBS Barred List (List 99), disqualified from working with children, or subject to sanctions imposed by a regulatory body, e.g. the Department for Education (DfE), and have no convictions, cautions, reprimands, warnings or bind-overs other than those disclosed to the Bursar where applicable. I declare that the information given on this application form is true and accurate.
