KNIGHTS ACADEMY

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

EXECUTIVE TALENT ACCELERATION PROGRAMME

PERMANENT- FULL TIME

Are you on your way to headship?

Are you forward thinking and innovative with experience in working at a strategic level?

This is an exciting opportunity for an excellent middle leader who is more than ready to take the next step in their career to become an Assistant Principal or an Assistant Principal looking for a route to accelerate their professional development ready to be a Vice Principal within the next two years.

Job Description

Haberdashers' Aske's Knights Academy is an oversubscribed "Good" school with a vibrant and diverse school community serving the families of our local communities in Lewisham and Bromley. Our ETA programme is successfully entering its fourth year developing senior leaders to work at a strategic level across our Federation. You will work closely alongside the Executive Principal and wider leadership team with a whole school leadership responsibility. We are particularly keen to hear from candidates with strong pastoral or curriculum experience having led a pastoral or curriculum team

The Successful candidate will:

- Join a fantastic community of dedicated professionals that are encouraged to grow and develop.
- Join the leadership team and take on the role of Assistant Principal with responsibility for personal development, behaviour and welfare.
- Have the opportunity to develop your leadership and management skills through structured professional development activities and coaching from Executive leaders across the Federation.

All prospective candidates are very welcome to visit the Academy.

If you wish to join this dynamic Academy, we look forward to hearing from you.
