

KS3 Academic Mentor

GR3 £20,344-£26,317 (Pro-rata)

Required: September 2019

Post: Full-Time, Permanent, 36.5 Hours per week (Term Time Only)

Employed By: Washwood Heath Multi Academy Trust

Based at: Washwood Heath Academy, Burney Lane, Stechford, Birmingham, B8 2AS.

Washwood Heath Academy is a rapidly improving and vibrant “good” school (Ofsted 2016) which serves a multi-ethnic community with care and high expectations and is proud of the achievements of its students.

We offer students a wide range of support to enable them to succeed. As part of our commitment to help students achieve the best possible results, we are looking for a committed and enthusiastic individual to work as an Academic mentor, working with identified groups of under-achieving students. A GCSE, grade C or above, in English and Math is essential when applying for this post.

We are looking for a committed, hard-working and enthusiastic individual who can have a significant impact on our journey of improvement. You should have a positive approach to challenge and change, and be a flexible team player. The post would involve working with a key cohort of pupils in year 7 ensuring that they make rapid progress to achieve their target grades. You will be responsible for supporting and implementing key projects including year 7 catch up initiatives. This post will also involve supporting students within lessons as well as developing personalized strategies to motivate students and support them in overcoming any barriers to their academic success.

So - can you motivate and inspire young people? Are you an excellent communicator who can work on your own initiative to develop relationships with teachers, families and students in order to help them improve their exam results? If so, we would love to hear from you.
