

HABERDASHERS' ASKE'S FEDERATION

Head of RS and PSHCE Haberdashers' Aske's Hatcham College

Full Time, permanent to start Sept 2019

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Head of RS and PSHCE at Haberdashers' Aske's Hatcham College (HAHC).

The Religious Studies department is a successful and vibrant curriculum area, offering Religious Studies and to GCSE and A Level. It is a popular subject at GCSE. The Head of Religious Studies will contribute to the overall leadership and management of the College and be active in promoting its aims, and supporting an ethos that promotes achievement and outstanding teaching and learning. We are seeking an excellent innovative practitioner who is committed to promoting the achievement and enjoyment of all learners, and to the on-going professional development of colleagues in the Religious Studies department.

In addition, the successful candidate will be responsible for working with the leadership team and heads of year in designing and implementing the PSHCE curriculum. The successful candidate will need:

- To be a model of high professional standards in all aspects of College life and to lead by example;
- To provide a vision for learning within the department in line with that of the whole College and lead the departmental team to realise that vision
- To implement the subject area improvement plan based upon on-going self-evaluation
- To further develop the new secondary Religious Studies curriculum in line with national changes and revised qualifications
- To provide strategic leadership in further developing and implementing literacy within the Religious Studies curriculum
- Develop the new PSHCE curriculum in Key stage 3
- Contribute to the PSCHE programme during tutor time

If you feel that this position is of interest and you have the right experience, skills and are ready for fresh challenges, with the ambition to make a real impact then we'd like to hear from you.
