

A Welcome From Mr Doyle, Headteacher of All Hallows Catholic School

All Hallows is a Catholic Comprehensive School and Sixth form College in the diocese of Portsmouth that serves the students and families of Surrey, Hampshire and Berkshire. We are a happy and high-achieving school, and alongside our strong academic performance, we offer a wide range of activities outside the classroom. We do this so that each student can experience a wide range of opportunities and find where their vocation in life lies.

We feel that our success comes down to a few things that are easy to understand and which need the attention of all of our community. We are positive and friendly, and value each person for her- or himself; we focus unashamedly on high achievement in the classroom and beyond; we work hard, and look to praise those who are great examples of this; finally, we share the good news that Christ is with us on our journey and helps us to use our talents to serve our students. We believe that if we all work hard at these things, our students will be happy and successful.

If you would like to visit, please make an appointment. You will be very welcome.

Yours sincerely

Patrick Doyle

Headteacher
