Job Description

Professional job descriptions are rarely exhaustive or definitive. The nature of teaching and caring for children in a small school brings both joys and challenges, and we expect all members of staff to show professional commitment and involvement in the all-round life and work of the School. The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Key features of the role include:

- Being a professional, approachable and reliable member of the school community;
- Being mindful of, and responsive to, the pastoral and well-being needs of all children;
- By an agreed rota, assisting with wrap around care including supervision of Little Tea and supervision of Late Stay pupils;
- By an agreed rota, supporting the member of staff on weekend duty with the routine for chorister supervision;
- Playground duties including duties at Hall House (Pre-Prep) and the Chantry (Prep) on a rota basis and supervision of pupils moving around the School site.
- Classroom support including reading and helping teachers with specific tasks (e.g. in Music, Sports, Science, Art and Design);
- Games support including preparation for matches and coaching of games lessons according to strengths and enthusiasm;
- School event and administrative support including preparation for and attendance at services, concerts, drama productions, PTA events, Year 8 leaver's party and assisting with displays;
- Undertaking other duties and responsibilities as may be reasonably requested by the Head.

In addition, all School staff are expected to:

- Work towards and support the School vision and the current School objectives;
- Carry out the work of the School to the best of your ability, displaying professionalism, team spirit, initiative, enthusiasm and loyalty to the School's aims and good name;
- Support your colleagues and their work, building on all that is good and helping to reshape what could be better;
- Do all you can, by the relationships that you build with pupils, staff, parents/guardians, visitors and the wider community, to promote the caring ethos of the School;
- Work within the School's Health and Safety policy to ensure a safe working environment for staff, pupils and visitors;
- Support and contribute to the School's responsibility for safeguarding pupils, reporting immediately any safeguarding concerns to the Deputy Head (Pupils) who is the School's DSL;
- Maintain high professional standards of attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct and positive, courteous relationships with pupils, parents and colleagues;
- Engage actively in the performance review process, training and development; adhere to all School policies, protocols, procedures and regulations as set out in the Staff Handbook;
- Undertake other reasonable duties related to the job that may be required from time to time.

Review

The job specification will be reviewed as part of the appraisal/professional development cycle. Any changes can only be made by agreement with the Head.

Statement

Exeter Cathedral School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All employees are required to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). This will give details of all spent and unspent convictions and other recordable matters. If you have lived or worked abroad for a period of six months or more during the past five years you will also need to provide appropriate paperwork, such as a police certificate of good conduct, from the countries you have lived in.
