

Position: DP Film Teacher

We are seeking an exceptionally talented and passionate DP Film Teacher to join our dynamic teaching team. The ideal candidate will have 4+ years of teaching experience and a strong background in delivering the IB Diploma Programme (DP) Film course. As a qualified teacher, you will have experience in developing students' analytical and creative filmmaking skills and fostering an appreciation for film as an art form. You will be an excellent communicator who works collaboratively with colleagues, students, and parents to create a learning environment that promotes educational excellence. You will be committed to the ongoing development of our curriculum and will be an effective professional with outstanding subject knowledge and a passion for cinema.

Key Responsibilities:

Engagement and Interaction – School Ambassador to Internal Community

- Promote the mission and philosophy of the school and the IB DP Film program.
- Establish a safe, inclusive, and stimulating learning environment for all students.
- Encourage students to develop critical thinking and creative problem-solving skills through film analysis and production.
- Engage and motivate students to explore filmmaking as both a technical craft and an artistic medium.
- Supervise students during school activities, ensuring their safety and well-being.

Curriculum Development & Delivery

- Develop and deliver the IB DP Film curriculum in alignment with IB principles.
- Design engaging, inquiry-based lessons that incorporate film history, theory, and production techniques.
- Facilitate student-led projects and support them in creating short films, documentaries, and other media productions.
- Encourage cross-disciplinary connections between Film and other DP subjects.

Assessment and Evaluation

- Design and implement effective assessment strategies to evaluate students' understanding and creative skills.
- Provide constructive feedback on students' work, helping them refine their analytical and filmmaking abilities.
- Track and analyze student progress to ensure continuous development.

Teacher Support and Development

- Collaborate with colleagues to integrate Film into the broader IB curriculum.
- Participate in professional development opportunities to stay current with best practices in film education.

Resource Management

- Manage and allocate resources efficiently to support the DP Film curriculum.
- Maintain film equipment, editing software, and other technical tools required for production.

Parental Engagement

- Communicate with parents regarding student progress, course expectations, and projects.
- Organize film screenings, exhibitions, and workshops to involve the school community in students' creative work.

Professional and Personal Development

- Stay abreast of trends, research, and technological advancements in film education.
 - Participate in IB training and certification to ensure best practices in DP Film teaching.
