

TEACHER OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT

FROM SEPTEMBER 2021

Kensington Park School is seeking to appoint a highly qualified, inspirational and enthusiastic teacher of Physical Education and coach of sport from September 2021. The successful candidate will teach Physical Education and coach students in a number of the main sporting options that are offered by the School to students in Years 7-11; there is the potential for this to be extended to the Sixth Form.

Kensington Park School is a co-educational independent school (11-18) situated in the heart of cosmopolitan London with a commitment to the principles of equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion. The School combines a rigorous academic education with an emphasis on developing the whole student by giving them a broad educational experience and strong pastoral care. The small class sizes ensure that a personalised and individual education is delivered to each student. The School has an extensive and thriving co-curricular programme to which a contribution will be expected.

The successful applicant will join a forward-thinking and high-achieving department and be committed to delivering genuinely imaginative, varied and challenging courses. Each year its leavers take up places at Oxbridge and other top universities in the UK, Europe, North America and around the world. The salary will reflect individual experience.

This post would equally suit an experienced classroom practitioner or an individual who is new to teaching. Kensington Park School has an excellent reputation for training staff through the Independent Schools Teacher Induction Panel (ISTIP).

Applications, which should include a covering letter addressed to the Headmaster and a fully completed Application Form, should reach the School no later than Wednesday 5th May 2021 at 9.00am.

Kensington Park School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants will be required to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.
