Headteacher: Ben Davis

MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Staffing

At present the Modern Foreign Languages department consists of 4 full time members of staff. Staff work collaboratively to achieve the best outcomes for their students, with development of teaching and learning being at the forefront of everything we do.

Accommodation

The MFL department has a suite of 3 classrooms which are situated in the main school. All classrooms have excellent teaching resources and an interactive white board. Computer rooms can be booked using the school system.

The Curriculum

French is taught to Years 7-10 and Spanish to Year 11. September 2018 saw the first cohort of A Level French students at St Ambrose. Both GCSE and A Level courses follow the Edexcel specification.

The MFL department also provides teaching support to six feeder Primary Schools where French and Spanish are taught across Key Stage 2.
