Required for October 2024

Lead SEND Practitioner Communication and Interaction/ SEMH focus

PO1 point 28, salary £36,451 per annum

35 hours per week, 40 weeks per year

We are looking to appoint an exceptional Lead SEND Practitioner (LSP) from October 2024 to join our Additional Educational Needs Faculty. LSPs lead on an area of SEND from the Code of Practice. This post will focus especially on students who experience barriers to learning through their communication and interaction, or social, emotional and mental health needs.

The successful candidate will already be a highly effective teaching assistant, with experience of making impact on the progress of children with SEND in their current setting. You will have an excellent understanding of the ways that accurate assessment, planned support and teamwork all help students overcome their SEMH needs.

You will have a track record of enabling SEND students to succeed. You will perhaps have reached a ceiling in your current role, and will be looking for the next challenge in your career as a SEND professional.

Our AEN Faculty team is growing in strength and effectiveness every year. We pride ourselves on our inclusive ethos. We have a specialist resourced provision ('The Base') for 20 students with EHCPs for ASC, and are a Hub for the Autism Education Trust. In addition, we have an excellent record of supporting students who require support for their C&I and SEMH needs. We embrace trauma informed practice throughout the school.

The new postholder will be the key worker for targeted students, and will support others to provide high quality interventions, drawing on their experience and expertise, and by modelling effective practice.

You will be a highly effective communicator and a reliable team player. As a core part of your role, you will develop a confident understanding of the curriculum, and work with faculty teams to support interventions and share responsibility for student outcomes. You will have a desire to progress professionally and personally within the role. You will work effectively with other LSPs, the SENDCo and his team of SEND leaders, as well as working closely with the Inclusion Team, and our large group of Teaching and Learning Assistants.

Situated close to Hampstead Heath in the heart of North London, Acland Burghley is a mixed, inclusive, community comprehensive school that enjoys high levels of parental support and a close collaborative relationship with other local schools. In September 2020, we entered into a partnership with the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment, who are resident on our site. They run regular workshops for all students, including special projects for students with SEND. We are part of the popular and highly successful LaSWAP post-16 consortium with Parliament Hill, La Sainte Union and William Ellis Schools, and a founder member of Camden Learning. We were confirmed as a 'good' school by Ofsted in October 2023.

Above all, applicants should demonstrate an uncompromising belief in the potential of every student, and a desire to place excellent SEND provision at the school's creative and inclusive heart. If you share our passion for ensuring high standards for all, and have the ambition to be part of an exciting future for young people in our school, we would very much like to hear from you.

To arrange an informal telephone conversation or a visit to the school, please contact Michelle Lineham, HR Manager on recruitment@aclandburghley.camden.sch.uk

Closing date for applications: 9am Friday 4 October 2024

Interviews will be held on 8 October 2024

JOB DESCRIPTION
Post Title:	Lead SEND Practitioner (LSP)	Grade:	PO1 35 hpw 40 wpy
Department:	Additional Educational Needs	Date:	September 2024
Responsible to: Deputy SENDCo
Responsible for: Responsible for line managing allocated Teaching and Learning Assistants, and managing provision and interventions for students with AEN.

INTRODUCTION

A Lead SEND Practitioner (LSP) will drive outstanding provision across the school by leading the development of a range of strategies for supporting students to learn in and outside the classroom in their specific area of SEND. (S)he will support teachers to deliver excellent lessons, delivering training to staff as required. (S)he will teach, coach and mentor individual students and groups. (S)he will line manage a group of TLAs, and quality assure aspects of provision. (S)he will supervise cover in the absence of teaching staff.

Supporting students with barriers to learning to become successful independent learners will be at the heart of the role. The LSP will challenge young people to succeed, and give them the confidence to overcome any barriers to success. They will work effectively with other LSPs, Deputy SENDCo and HoF as well as working closely with the PABS team and Teaching and Learning Assistants.

There are four Lead SEND Practitioner (LSP) posts, each of which will focus on one or more of the following areas of SEN described in the SEN Code of Practice: Learning and Cognition; Social Emotional and Mental Health; Physical and Sensory; Communication and Interaction. An LSP can be asked to focus on any of these areas.

The following are the main responsibilities of the post:

1. Teaching and Learning

- To lead on interventions with students within any of the four areas of SEN;
- Coordination with other LSPs to ensure all students' needs are met in a holistic manner alongside TLAs;
- Coordination with the Deputy SENDCo of the timetabling of TLAs to meet the needs of students with needs;
- Ensure the implementation of access arrangements for students when they complete assessments and examinations;
- Deliver staff training within the AEN Faculty and whole school on interventions;
- Responsibility for the creation, completion, quality assurance and monitoring of pupil profiles in conjunction with student key workers;
- Work collaboratively with the Deputy SENDCo and SEN Practitioners to plan and implement Year 7 transition;
- Effective use of the Assess, Plan, Do, Review cycle to select appropriate interventions, monitor the effectiveness of interventions and how they meet the outcomes of students' EHCPs;
- To produce annual review reports that link to student EHCP outcomes;

- To work closely with parents and families in planning and implementing each child's programme of support, and in running workshops, for example, in the Base;
- To work towards relevant professional qualifications related to learning and cognition needs/SMEH, Physical and Sensory needs/communication and interaction needs, for example Emotional Literacy Support Assistant;
- To motivate and support students to remain on task and complete work in a focused, independent way, providing visual support where necessary;
- To help students with their organisational skills with regard to timetable, books, planner, homework and using the school facilities;
- To provide literacy and numeracy teaching for students, and to help them to make progress in this area;
- To ensure that equipment or materials are suitable for the learning activities and prepare, design and adapt other materials where necessary;
- To assist the teacher in the planning and delivery of class activities;
- To tailor individual timetables for students, including in the ARP;
- To work with individuals and small groups on specific activities;
- To develop the curriculum for life skills qualifications, deliver the programme, and take responsibility for grading and moderation with the exam board;
- To provide support as required for faculties across the school;
- To provide personal and academic mentoring for students;
- To support students with GCSE and A Level preparation and revision strategies;
- To track student progress, and report to relevant colleagues on student progress;
- To support the creation and delivery of an appropriate transition between each year group and a more rigorous, intensive one for those transitioning between each key stage;
- To lead Year 7 transition for students with complex needs, including leading on prospective student tours, and supporting transition sessions.

2. Assessment of additional needs

- To lead systems to identify and assess students with needs in coordination with the Deputy SENDCo;
- To undertake training to lead on the administration of standardised assessment tools, such as LUCID assessment, SDQ, SCARED, SLCN screener, WMRS;
- Collect and interpret specialist assessment data to inform practice;
- To lead on the creation, implementation, quality assurance and monitoring of EHCP profiles and IEPs, using the APDR framework in accordance with the Code of Practice;
- To lead on 'assess, plan, do, review' in the faculty, actioning appropriate next steps, monitoring the effectiveness of interventions and evaluating how they meet the outcomes of students' EHCPs;
- Support with responding to consultations for EHCP students from Y6, including assessing suitability for school placement alongside the Associate SENDCo and DoL for KS3;

3. Leadership and management

- To line manage TLAs, supporting their development, organising CPD, and carrying out quality of provision reviews, annual appraisal and probation meetings as appropriate;
- To monitor absence and sickness, including return to work forms;
- To quality assure TLA paperwork e.g. for annual reviews;
- To carry out statutory responsibilities towards children with EHCPs, ensuring compliance with all aspects of the SEND Code of Practice in relationship to meeting a child's needs;
- To manage and track the AEN provision map of interventions;
- To monitor IEPs and staff practice to ensure Section F compliance, and intervene where necessary to arrange additional interventions;
- To organise specialist training to further develop AEN intervention provision;
- To support TLAs and other staff in the delivery of interventions, by completing regular observations, giving feedback, and training;

- To provide professional guidance to teachers to secure good teaching for SEN pupils, through both written guidance and meetings;
- To contribute to building effective in-class support through a coherent programme of CPD, observations (peer and monitoring) and coaching;
- To ensure that all provision for students with SEND meets the school's obligations under the Equalities Act (2010) and supports the school to work towards the outcomes of its Equalities Objectives;
- To lead on communication with external professionals, such as EPs and SaLTs;
- To meet with middle leaders from other teams (faculties, year teams) to facilitate improved QFT and wave 1 and 2 interventions across the school;
- To participate in group supervision and support when this is available from the EP team and provided by the school;
- To lead student voice activities, including student interview panels for internal and external recruitment;
- To oversee the daily running of specialist SEND spaces, including the ARP;
- To order items for the SEND Faculty, including provisions for children with EHCPs.

4. Inclusion, behaviour, safeguarding and medical needs

- To ensure adherence to all procedures for safeguarding children;
- To fulfil the role as a Key Worker for a number of EHCP students;
- To fulfil the role as a Student Outcome Co-ordinator (SOC) for students with SEMH/P&S needs;
- To lead on creation of Individual Health Care Plans for students with medical needs, and review them in line with DfE guidance;
- To oversee the medical register and ensure it is regularly updated;
- To organise training for first aiders to ensure that staff are qualified to support significant medical needs;
- To be the link between the school and medical professionals to ensure the safety of students with medical needs;
- To administer and oversee all medical equipment in the school, e.g. defibrillator;
- To be responsible for school accreditation, such as Asthma Friendly School status;
- To lead on managing challenging behaviour and ensure the school's behaviour policy is implemented;
- To be 'on call' to support with challenges that may arise during the day;
- To support students during unstructured times including break and lunch, and before and after school;
- To support students to regulate their behaviour in and out of the classroom;
- To actively listen to all students and ensure they feel listened to and heard;
- To organise and attend reintegration meetings for students in receipt of internal or external suspensions;
- To apply/enforce appropriate sanctions for students;
- To chair restorative conversations for students with complex needs;
- To complete a range of referrals to external services including but not limited to eCAF, SPOR, CAMHS, SCAS, OT, School Nurse, Brook Sexual Health;
- To complete cluster funding applications for high need students;
- To lead on the completion of necessary paperwork regarding alternative provisions;
- To organise visits and accompany students and parents on visits to alternative provision, work experience or school trips;
- To be the lead person when a student is attending an alternative provision and is listed as educated off site;
- To coordinate and chair TAC/TAF meetings and meetings with external agencies;
- To attend CIN meetings as appropriate;
- To apply trauma informed practice strategies to support targeted students;
- To liaise with external agencies to support the behaviour and wellbeing of students.
- To carry out whole school duties each day including: on and around the school gate at the start and end of the school day; in allocated locations at break and lunchtimes, including in the school canteen; on corridors throughout the school between lessons; or breakfast club;

- To encourage positive friendship patterns for all students and support social interaction and social understanding for students with AEN;
- To support students in physical activities (PE, Drama etc) as required;
- To provide personal care and assistance for students who require such support, including those with special educational needs, autism, or medical needs. This may include personal hygiene;
- To support students during times of crisis, implementing effective calming strategies;
- To manage challenging behaviour safely and effectively;
- To understand and support students' communication needs – using visuals where necessary;
- To organise appropriate lunchtime activities for students;
- To establish and maintain effective working relationships with teachers, and other staff in the school;
- To support with school enrichment activities including leading on extra-curricular activities and clubs before and after school and at lunch time, and including residential trips where appropriate;
- To communicate information about students' personal and educational needs to other staff and model effective strategies for supporting a student as appropriate;
- To be sensitive to the confidential information that is passed on in the course of the day, and pass on any concerns in accordance with the Child Protection Policy and guidelines in place in the school;
- To be in regular and ongoing contact with the parent or carer of the young person, forming a trusting relationship with them, listening to their needs and finding ways to support them through the young person's learning plan;

Inspection of a good school: Acland Burghley School

Burghley Road, London NW5 1UJ

Inspection dates:

18 and 19 October 2023

Outcome

Acland Burghley School continues to be a good school.

What is it like to attend this school?

Leaders have developed an inclusive community in which all pupils feel welcome. Staff know pupils very well, which ensures they are safe. Leaders have high expectations for all pupils, including those with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND).

Pupils behave well during lessons and around the school site. On the rare occasions when low-level disruption occurs, teachers use clear systems to address it. Pupils enjoy school. They are enthusiastic, happy and take pleasure in learning.

Pupils take part in a range of wider opportunities in the school. These include clubs for creative writing, debating and coding. Students in the sixth form are encouraged to plan and deliver their own clubs for younger pupils in the school. Pupils take part in leadership opportunities, including the student council, the diversity group, and eco-warriors.

There is a wide range of music and sporting opportunities. These include a variety of sports clubs and competitions, choirs and ensembles, and a partnership with a professional orchestra. Pupils have further opportunities to develop their characters through delivering assemblies. They also create podcasts and take part in regular in-class debates.

What does the school do well and what does it need to do better?

Leaders have developed a curriculum that is ambitious and in line with the expectations of the national curriculum. They have identified the key knowledge and skills they want pupils to learn. The curriculum progressively builds on pupils' knowledge over time.

Teachers have strong subject knowledge and present information clearly during lessons. They make adaptations to ensure that pupils with SEND can access the same ambitious curriculum. Staff match work for pupils to their individual needs, including a personalised curriculum for those with more complex needs.

Sometimes, teaching does not check or deepen pupils' understanding before moving on to new content. This means that, on occasion, pupils do not commit knowledge to their long-term memories.

Staff swiftly identify pupils who may struggle to read when they join the school. They identify pupils' individual needs and put in place bespoke support quickly. This ensures that pupils make rapid improvements in their fluency and confidence in reading. A range of strategies are in place to promote a love of reading. Pupils all read regularly in school, including during library lessons, tutor periods and whole-school reading events. Leaders ensure that pupils with SEND receive strong support with their reading.

Pupils generally demonstrate positive attitudes to their learning. Typically, they take great care over their work and produce work of a high quality. On occasion, pupils lose focus in class. Sometimes, staff do not ensure that they support pupils to concentrate on their learning consistently well. Leaders support pupils to have high attendance. They have robust and bespoke procedures in place to enable pupils to attend regularly.

Leaders have designed a comprehensive and well-planned personal development curriculum. This helps pupils to develop an understanding of how to stay safe and healthy. Staff are highly effective at assessing pupils' understanding of these topics. They put in place bespoke support, sometimes using external providers, to support any pupil who needs to deepen their understanding.

Leaders provide a broad range of outings, in which all pupils participate. All pupils, including pupils with SEND, are involved in these opportunities. This helps to enrich pupils' broader personal and cultural development. These include visits to concerts, museums and an outdoor activities centre.

Leaders make sure that all pupils access high-quality careers, advice and guidance. The school welcomes a range of external speakers, including employers and speakers from universities. A variety of talks and workshops ensure that pupils are well informed of their future options and build important employability skills. Students in the sixth form receive high-quality guidance to support their future education and employment.

Leaders look after the health and welfare of staff. They are conscious of the pressures of workload and explore strategies to minimise this where possible. Leaders have built strong working relationships with parents and the local community.

Safeguarding

The arrangements for safeguarding are effective.

What does the school need to do to improve?

(Information for the school and appropriate authority)

- On occasion, teaching does not check pupils' understanding and identify misconceptions consistently well. This means that, sometimes, pupils are not fully ready to learn new content and commit knowledge to their long-term memories. Leaders should develop the expertise of all teachers so that they consistently identify and address any gaps in pupils' understanding.

- On occasion, staff's expectations of pupils are not high, including in keeping all pupils attentive in lessons. As a result, some pupils do not demonstrate a consistently positive attitude to the quality of their work. Leaders should ensure that all staff have consistently high standards for the quality of work produced and support pupils to focus and concentrate.

Background

When we have judged a school to be good, we will then normally go into the school about once every four years to confirm that the school remains good. This is called an ungraded inspection, and it is carried out under section 8 of the Education Act 2005. We do not give graded judgements on an ungraded inspection. However, if we find evidence that a school would now receive a higher or lower grade, then the next inspection will be a graded inspection, which is carried out under section 5 of the Act. Usually this is within one to two years of the date of the ungraded inspection. If we have serious concerns about safeguarding, behaviour or the quality of education, we will deem the ungraded inspection a graded inspection immediately.

This is the first ungraded inspection since we judged school to be good in March 2018

How can I feed back my views?

You can use Ofsted Parent View to give Ofsted your opinion on your child's school, or to find out what other parents and carers think. We use information from Ofsted Parent View when deciding which schools to inspect, when to inspect them and as part of their inspection.

The Department for Education has further guidance on how to complain about a school.

Further information

You can search for published performance information about the school.

In the report, 'disadvantaged pupils' is used to mean pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND); pupils who meet the definition of children in need of help and protection; pupils receiving statutory local authority support from a social worker; and pupils who otherwise meet the criteria used for deciding the school's pupil premium funding (this includes pupils claiming free school meals at any point in the last six years, looked after children (children in local authority care) and/or children who left care through adoption or another formal route).

Information about this school

- The school uses five alternative providers.
- The school meets the requirements of the provider access legislation, which requires schools to provide pupils in Years 8 to 13 with information and engagement about approved technical education qualifications and apprenticeships.

Information about this inspection

- This was the first routine inspection the school received since the COVID-19 pandemic began. Inspectors discussed the impact of the pandemic with the school and have taken that into account in their evaluation of the school.
- Inspectors met with the headteacher, members of the senior leadership team, and a range of staff. They also met with members of the governing body and a representative from the local authority.

- The inspectors carried out deep dives in the following subjects: art, mathematics, science and history. For each deep dive, inspectors spoke to subject leaders, visited a sample of lessons, spoke to teachers, discussed with pupils, and looked at samples of pupils' work. The curriculum in other subjects was also considered.
- To evaluate the effectiveness of safeguarding, inspectors: reviewed the single central record; took account of the views of leaders, staff and pupils; and considered the extent to which the school has created an open and positive culture around safeguarding that puts pupils' interests first.
- Inspectors considered the views of parents, pupils, and staff, including through responses to Ofsted's online surveys.
