

Teacher of Mathematics

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School

Permanent

0.8 FTE

MPS/UPS

QEGSMAT are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic Teacher of Mathematics to join our hardworking and high achieving Math's Department at Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School.

Nestled in the picturesque Derbyshire Dales in the idyllic town of Ashbourne, Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School, Ashbourne Academy is an academic and vibrant rural comprehensive school with a very successful Sixth Form.

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School is a proud member of QEGSMAT. The Trust's values are for students to 'Question, Explore; Give; and Succeed'. Our exceptional staff, strong leadership, motivated children, as well as excellent facilities, provide the successful formula for this.

At QEGSMAT we believe and promote that exceptional workforce creates exceptional results; they transform lives and transform futures. We support every pupil to achieve their full potential and become a confident, resilient, and compassionate individual who can make a positive contribution to society.

Why work for us?

At QEGSMAT, we value the hard work and dedication of our team members, and as such we believe that progression should be a simple process. That's why we are proud to offer an Automatic Pay Review program, rather than the traditional annual pay and performance review, as part of our comprehensive benefits package.

Continual access to CPD opportunities. QEGSMAT works with a large number of organisations to develop staff to fulfil their aspirations and potential. We are committed to providing first-rate training and development to all our staff within this evolving Trust.

We are committed to promoting equality, challenging discrimination, and developing community cohesion. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.

All staff have access to our Employee Assistance Programme which provides confidential, independent and unbiased information and guidance 24/7. This can also include bespoke counselling sessions for staff if needed.

All roles are subject to nationally agreed terms and conditions of service.

With access to Teacher Pension Scheme employer contributions of 28.68% for Teachers.

Family-friendly policies.

Access to Flu Vaccines.

Opportunity to work flexibly.

- Access to 750+ discounts on everyday essentials via our benefits package with Vivup

QEGSMAT is also committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. It is a criminal offence to engage or seek to engage in regulated activity or regulated work with children, if you appear on the DBS barred list. All appointments are subject to an Enhanced DBS check and be eligible to work in the UK.

Further information about our commitment to Safeguarding can be found -

<https://www.qegsmat.com/documents/safeguarding>

Please be aware, the Trust may also consider performing an online presence check as part of their pre-employment checks.

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore applicants are required to declare any cautions, convictions, reprimands and final warnings that are not protected (i.e. that are not filtered out) as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013 and 2020).

If you are interested and wish to have an informal conversation to discuss the role or would like to visit the school, we would be happy to arrange this. Please call: Sarah Smit 01335 343 685. Further details about our school can be found on our website: www.queenelizabeths.derbyshire.sch.uk

- Set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding students have acquired;
- Reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching;
- Contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curriculum within the relevant subject area(s).

Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all students:

- Know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable students to be taught effectively;
- Have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit students' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these;
- Demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support students' education at different stages of development;
- Have a clear understanding of the needs of all students, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them.

Make accurate and productive use of assessment:

- Know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas, including statutory assessment requirements;
- Make use of formative and summative assessment to secure students' progress;
- Use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons;
- Give students regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage students to respond to the feedback;
- Monitor and support the overall progress and development of students as a form tutor.

Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment:

- Have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the school's behaviour policy;
- Have high expectations of behaviour, and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly;
- Manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to students' needs in order to involve and motivate them;
- Maintain good relationships with pupils, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.

Fulfil wider professional responsibilities:

- Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school;
- Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support;
- Deploy support staff effectively;
- Take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development and Performance Management, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues;
- Communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' achievements and well-being;

- Follow the school's Quality Assurance procedures;
- Maintain appropriate records and registers - providing relevant and up-to-date information when appropriate;
- Complete the relevant documentation to assist in the tracking of students – using this information to inform teaching and learning;
- Take part in school Parent and teacher meetings, Open Days/Evenings, celebrations and rewards events;
- Deliver form tutor challenges/activities during form times;
- Carry out duties as shown on the Staff Duty Rota;
- Comply with the school's Health and Safety Policy and undertake risk assessments as appropriate.

Personal and professional conduct:

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school, by:

- Treating students with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position;
- Having regard for the need to safeguard students' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions;
- Showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others;
- Not undermining fundamental British Values, including Democracy, The Rule of Law, Individual Liberty and Mutual Respect, and Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs;
- Ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit students' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.

Please note:

- Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from their Line Manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description

METHODS OF WORKING

The post holder must:
