Lord Wandsworth College Teacher of Creative Digital Media BTEC

Candidate Pack

Welcome to Lord Wandsworth College

Situated on a magnificent 1200 acre campus of rolling countryside, woodland and a working arable farm, Lord Wandsworth College (LWC) provides an inspiring education to approximately 700 boarding and day pupils (co-ed) aged 11-18.

LWC is thriving under the leadership of Adam Williams. Its popularity has been reflected in significantly rising pupil numbers and a transformational vision for education has led to major investment in the campus and facilities of close to £25m. The latest, and most significant, of these capital projects is an £9m state-of-the-art Science Centre, which opened early in 2022.

This is a dynamic and highly successful school on a clearly upward trajectory with significant investment in staff professional development too. Furthermore, the College has won three national awards for Wellbeing and Mental health Initiatives in as many years and continues to celebrate record academic achievement and a range of sporting honours, whilst retaining a strong grasp of the importance of being a grounded school.

Our History

Lord Wandsworth College is named after Baron Sydney Stern, a Liberal MP and the second son of a City banker. Granted a peerage less than four years after winning the seat of Stowmarket in 1891, Stern took the title of Lord Wandsworth in reflection of his many links with the area.

When Lord Wandsworth died in 1912, he left a generous bequest to educate the children of agricultural workers – children who had lost one or both parents and needed the support of a boarding environment.

Lord Wandsworth's Trustees purchased the site on which the College now stands and the first Foundationers arrived in 1922, followed by fee-paying pupils in 1945.

The Foundation

Committed to upholding the wishes of Lord Wandsworth, every year the Lord Wandsworth Foundation offers approximately 50 assisted Foundation places. 2,500 Foundationers have passed through the College since its inception.

The Foundation exists to help children who have lost the support of one or both parents through death, divorce or separation and require a caring and supportive boarding environment in which to thrive. It is led by a team of Trustees, all of whom are governors of LWC and live in the local community.

The day-to-day running of the Foundation, including the selection of Foundationers, is handled by the Admissions team and the Foundation Tutor, who work alongside the Development Director to promote the work of the Foundation.

The 5 Pillars

Our 5 Pillars define a Lord Wandsworth education.

They are:

+1 Do One More Thing

These are the small acts of kindness which all members of the LWC community strive to make part of their daily lives. The emphasis is on the one thing that each person can do to make a conversation or interaction with another person that little bit better.

+2 Be Two Years Ahead

+2 is a phrase that is well-used at LWC. It is an aspiration and a mindset which encourages pupils to stretch themselves two years beyond their current academic level. It's about inspirational teaching and learning, making connections, sharing knowledge, and thinking differently.

+3 Wellbeing and Happiness

LWC aspires to be the most incredible place to live and work for both pupils and staff alike. The College believes happy children are successful children and there is a strong focus on welfare, wellbeing, and good mental health: the triumvirate of the +3 philosophy.

4 Pupil Voice

Schools flourish when pupils have a meaningful, positive input and impact within their environment, and LWC aspires to be the leading school in the UK in terms of pupil voice. Pupils are involved in campus master-planning, exterior and interior building design, staff appraisal, academic feedback, and further enriching the College's dynamic culture.

5 Character Education

Cognitive ability is not the only thing that determines a child's life chances. Character can shape one's destiny. Character is not inherent; it is born of positive experiences, and it can be taught. Character attributes of Fairness, Generosity, Empathy, Loyalty, Gratitude, Courage, Engagement, Creativity, Perseverance, Optimism, Self-control, and Curiosity are taught intentionally at LWC, and a commitment to character education runs throughout the educational experience.

Role outline and purpose

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding Teacher of BTEC Creative Digital Media for 12 periods per week. The subject is currently studied in Lower Sixth and Upper Sixth. The ability to offer another creative subject would be an advantage.

Media is taught in a dedicated classroom equipped with a suite of iMacs and filming equipment, fostering both theoretical understanding and practical filming skills. Our small classes ensure personalised attention, allowing us to closely mentor each student in their journey. Results have been strong over the past two years.

In addition to academic lessons, our department actively contributes to various marketing and student-led projects. This hands-on involvement provides students with the opportunity to enhance their project management and organisational skills, preparing them for the demands of the media industry.

Teaching at LWC requires that members of the academic staff be willing to contribute fully to the life of the College. This includes tutoring, co-curricular involvement, boarding house duties, cover duties and attending parents' evenings for the year groups taught. Liaison with parents is included in the sphere of the teacher's responsibilities.

Role responsibilities

The academic curriculum at Lord Wandsworth College is underpinned by four principles known as A2RH. Through these principles, set HERE, we aim to enable all pupils to find and develop a passion for learning that inspires them to improve and that will stay with them beyond their time with us.

Planning, Teaching and Class Management

Teach allocated pupils by planning your teaching to achieve progression of learning through:

- Identifying clear teaching objectives and specifying how they will be taught and assessed
- Setting tasks which challenge pupils and ensure high levels of interest, clear targets, building on prior attainment
- Being aware of and making provision for all pupils with individual learning support needs and/or EAL pupils
- Making effective use of assessment and ensuring coverage of programmes of study
- Maintaining discipline in accordance with the College's procedures and encouraging good practice regarding punctuality, behaviour, standards of work and PREP
- Using a variety of teaching methods to:
 - Match approach to content, structure information, present a set of key ideas and use appropriate vocabulary

- o Use effective questioning, listen carefully to pupils, give attention to errors and misconceptions
- o Select appropriate learning resources and develop study skills through library, ICT, and other sources
- Ensuring pupils acquire and consolidate knowledge, skills and understanding appropriate to the subject taught
- Liaising with your Head of Department to ensure the implementation of department policy and best practice

All full-time teachers are expected to have a tutor group, complete one evening duty in a boarding house each week if living on site; contribute to co-curricular programme, including on Saturdays (approximately 2 - 3 sessions per week minimum) and carry out other rota duties (tea, lunch, Sunday boarder trips etc).

Monitoring, Assessment, Recording, Reporting

- Assess how well learning objectives have been achieved and use them to improve specific aspects of teaching
- Mark and monitor pupils' work and set targets for progress in line with the College's Marking and Assessment policy and the departmental policy
- Assess and record pupils' progress systematically and keep records to check work is understood and completed, monitor strengths and weaknesses, inform planning, and recognise the level at which the pupil is achieving
- Undertake assessment of pupils as requested by examination bodies, departmental and school procedures
- Offer informative and formative feedback to parents at parents' evenings
- Evaluating your own teaching critically to improve effectiveness

Person Specification

- Have a working knowledge of teachers' professional duties and legal liabilities
- Operate at all times within the stated policies and practices of the school
- Know subject(s) or specialism(s) to enable effective teaching
- Take account of wider curriculum developments
- Establish effective working relationships and set a good example through your presentation and personal and professional conduct
- Endeavour to give every child the opportunity to reach their potential and meet high expectations
- Co-operate with other staff to ensure a sharing and effective usage of resources to the benefit of the College, department, and pupils
- Take part in marketing and liaison activities such as Open Evenings, Parents' Evenings, and events with partner schools
- Take responsibility for your own professional development and duties in relation to college

policies and practices

- Liaise effectively with parents and governors

Behaviours and competencies

- Demonstrate a commitment to the values of LWC
- Hold a strong understanding of the importance of Safeguarding and Child Protection
- Demonstrate commitment to diversity and inclusion practices
- Be proactive in matters relating to health and safety
- Co-operate with other staff to ensure a sharing and effective usage of resources to the benefit of the College, department, and pupils
- Take responsibility for your own professional development and duties in relation to college policies and practices

Key Stakeholders

- Head of Digital Studies
