DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

The English department at Queensmead strives above all to foster a love of English, inspiring students to explore a range of challenging literary and non-literary texts. We have recently revitalised our curriculum in order to encourage a life-long thirst for literature and learning, whilst also nurturing the ability to become discerning, critical and analytical learners, ready for the increasingly complex and linguistic world that we live in.

In the department, there are twelve English specialists, each with a range of teaching and pastoral experiences. Besides the Head of Department and Assistant Head, there are members of staff with additional responsibilities both within the department and on a whole-school basis. Each full time English teacher has their own classroom base, equipped with an interactive whiteboard and visualiser, in addition to the main office with a large work room.

As a department, we pride ourselves on our collaborative culture; we create and share resources with each other, promoting a sense of shared responsibility for the delivery of an innovative and imaginative curriculum for all students. Colleagues are regularly given the opportunity to share good practice as well as having the opportunity to trial new pedagogical approaches, and fostering a supportive atmosphere is a priority for us. We deliver the AQA specifications for both English Language and English Literature at GCSE. For Post-16 students, we offer AQA A level English Literature, AQA A level English Language and are about to embark on an exciting new venture, offering BTEC Media studies as a vocational option. As a department, we continue to achieve excellent outcomes and hope to build upon our successes: 83.7% of our students achieved 9-4 in the GCSEs in June 2019 and 100% of our A level students achieved an A*-C.

To continue to develop our department, we seek an inspirational, enthusiastic and dedicated Teacher of English. You must be highly-motivated and driven to promote high standards of teaching and learning, with the initiative to share good practice and ideas collaboratively. The ability to communicate effectively with staff, students and parents is also essential.
