Join an all-through school with a growing reputation for excellence

Graded 'Good' in all areas by Ofsted (March 2019)

Dixons Allerton Academy is an all-through school (ages 3 to 19) with over 1840 students. We are a values driven academy with a clear mission and understanding of excellence. We are looking for an experienced leader with a proven track record in assessment, tracking and intervention who has had significant impact on pupil attainment and progress. The successful applicant will lead and drive further improvements as we strive for excellence across the academy.

Why choose Dixons Allerton Academy?

- Culture of high expectations; teachers can teach and students can learn
- Relentless focus on scholar development and achievement
- Weekly coaching and professional development for staff
- Highly visible and supportive Senior Leadership team
- High staff morale

The right candidate will be totally aligned to our values of happiness, industry and responsibility and completely committed to our mission: to ensure students develop good moral principles and achieve exceptional outcomes that enable ambitious life choices.
