Person Specification

The successful candidate will:

- be an inspiring, creative and passionate teacher whose practice is rooted in Quality First Teaching and will share our belief in the importance of supporting and developing the whole child.
- be able to plan for all areas of the curriculum and create a stimulating, enabling learning environment that promotes high level learning in the absence of an adult
- share and demonstrate a belief in the Inspired approach to education where academic performance, sporting opportunities and creative arts are given equal status throughout a child's school experience.
- have Qualified Teacher Status or equivalent.
- have a strong understanding of how to plan from, teach and assess against the Early Years Framework.
- have a clear understanding of the Early Learning Goals and how to help children achieve these at the end of the Reception year
- have experience of successful teaching across Nursery and Reception and will be able to demonstrate the value they have added to the outcomes of pupils under their care.
- experience delivering high quality phonics lessons
- be able to adapt teaching methods to support and drive the progress of pupils whose first language is not English.
- demonstrate a clear knowledge and understanding of the importance of outdoor learning
- have experience of teaching using Pie Corbett's 'Talk 4 Writing' would be desirable but not essential.
- be a dedicated team player, with a "can-do" attitude who contributes positively to the general working environment.
- be a reflective practitioner with a keen interest in their own personal and professional development and enthusiasm for participating in CPD and peer learning opportunities.
- be fluent in English and demonstrate highly articulate spoken, written & technical language.
- share our strong pastoral ethos and be able to demonstrate a commitment to pastoral care and the crucial role all staff play in developing the "whole" child.
- be committed to safeguarding the children in our care by following school policies and procedures
- demonstrate high standards in all aspects of their professional life.
- be excited by the prospect of working for a school judged under the BSO framework to be "outstanding in all areas" and be able to explain what they can bring to that environment.
