

Drama Leader of Learning (Teacher)

Do you have a desire to help students make outstanding learning progress in a high achieving department at the country's most innovative school, King's Interhigh?

As part of our strategy to continue to grow and provide our services internationally, we are advertising for talented and ambitious teacher of Drama to join our school, with the ability to teach from Key Stage 2 to Key Stage 4.

Our teachers work from home in the UK to deliver live lessons via our online classrooms where students are encouraged to participate and join in with activities and if you are interested in joining us to improve the lives of our students, we would love to hear from you!

About the role

Job Title – Drama Leader of Learning (Teacher)

Location – Based in the UK - working remotely from home

Various Benefits:

- A Company Pension
- Life Cover
- Employee Discount Programme

Start Date - End of August 2022 in readiness for the new academic year

Salary Range – £30,993 - £37,100 per annum depending on experience and qualifications

Position: Full-Time, Permanent

You will be contracted to work 35 weeks term time and a further 4 weeks which will be directed time during half-terms for you to complete other activities such as course writing, marking, revision sessions etc. The timing of directed weeks/hours will be confirmed and staff will be off for the remainder of the half-terms. It is expected that staff will work the necessary hours to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.

Working Hours

- 37.5 hours per week over 5 days
- Live Teaching is from Monday to Friday
- Live Teaching can be between 8:30am – 5:10pm
- A full-time teacher can be teaching up to 33, 40-minute lessons a week (22 hours of contact time) Remaining time available for preparation, marking, course writing etc

About us

Operating world-wide, we are the largest online school group in the UK, delivering a fully personalised education online. Our curriculum structure is based on the key stages, with IGCSEs offered at KS4 and A Levels at KS5, we also now offer the IB Diploma Programme at KS5 commencing September 2022. We teach students online, through a digital platform. We offer a genuinely 21st century education and the opportunity for teachers to develop professional skills. Our teachers teach exceptionally well-behaved students from their own home and all teachers are provided with high quality computer hardware.

About the group

King's Interhigh Online School is part of the Inspired Education Group. Inspired is a leading global premium schools group, offering excellence in Kindergarten to Year 13 education to over 50,000 students. Its international network of 70 schools, across 20 countries on 5 continents, delivers proven best practice from every corner of the globe - to ensure learning is world class.

Inspired students benefit from this unique global connectivity, in schools that are anchored in their local community. With a holistic curriculum focus on the three pillars of academic excellence, sport and performing arts, the unique individuality of every student is unlocked, giving Inspired students transformative opportunities to achieve their full potential and to flourish.

Job Description

Kings Interhigh is a leading online provider of primary, secondary and college education in the UK. With over 3,500 students, Kings Interhigh and alternative provision division Academy 21, make up the two entities. We are an ambitious company with quality education and student engagement at the heart of everything we do.

The successful candidate will join a talented team providing excellent online educational experiences for our students whose ages range between 7 and 18. The successful candidate will demonstrate expertise and experience of delivering Drama from KS2 to KS4 and come from either a state school and/or independent school background. Passionate about ensuring the students are at the centre of learning, the successful candidate will be used to deadlines, have experience of creating effective learning resources and having a key focus on the academic monitoring and progress of the students.

The Drama Leader of Learning will work as a teacher in the Arts team with other Leader of Learning's under the direction of and reporting to the Head of Subject. Sharing ideas and best practice approaches are key factors in the online environment. Also, working together with the Head of Subject towards the school's Education Strategy and the success of our students.

The successful candidate will:

- Inspire, motivate and provide purposeful subject knowledge for students within the school
- Be up to date on current research and emerging pedagogy and disseminate this to staff through active engagement in professional development with the learning community
- Take a leading role in maintaining a positive and inspirational learning climate in the subject specialism and, where appropriate, the integration of your subject learning across the curriculum

- Support the self-evaluation of the school's effectiveness and the development of priorities for improvement
- Assist in maintaining and developing a high-quality school environment and profile and act as a role model by their professional conduct and disposition
- Promote the general progress and well-being of individual students and any class or group of students
- Provide guidance and advice to students on educational matters
- Provide or contribute to assessments, reports and references relating to students in a timely manner
- Participate in meetings and staff CPD opportunities
- Undertake any other work as specified by their line manager

Qualifications and Education Requirements

Ideally the candidate will be qualified up to degree level in a related subject area and have a recognised teaching qualification, a PGCE with Qualified Teacher Status.

Skills and attributes - Essential

- Excellent written and communication skills
- Knowledge of the correct Safeguarding procedure
- Knowledge of the education sector in a teaching profession or above
- Ability to work well in teams
- Change and business improvement-focused
- Able to work effectively in dynamic and changing environments
- Experience of working in the primary, secondary or college sector
- Experience of working in state or independent school sector
- Experience with creating resources and the ability to review and enhance our current course delivery
- Computer Literate with the ability to teach online using technology applications

Skills and attributes - DESIRABLE

- Current or previous experience in a pastoral role

Specifically, you will have: -

- Excellent subject knowledge.
- Knowledge of best ways to engage students in your subject of expertise.
- The capability to drive best practices and have a reputation for delivering high quality material.
- The ability to work well within a team, while having the courage to raise new ideas and support the implementation within the department, with the Leaders of Learning.
- A keen interest within the online teaching and learning environment, with a passion for the learning and development of students.
- A flexible, highly energetic approach and the ability to thrive in a business with a fast changing, collaborative, delivery culture.
- Considerable interpersonal communication skills with the ability to form good relationships both internally and externally.

- The ability to work independently where necessary but in a collaborative team environment where appropriate.
- An ambition to place King's Interhigh offering at the forefront of the marketplace.

