Dear Applicant,

I am delighted that you have chosen to apply for a post with the City of London Academies Trust.

COLAT is driven by the ambition to provide world-class experiences and deliver exceptional educational outcomes for the young people we serve. Combining the heritage and traditions of the City of London Corporation with an innovative and enterprising approach to teaching and learning, we aim to ensure that every one of our schools can be judged as 'outstanding' within three years of joining our Trust.

Our expectations are high for both our students and our staff. Our 'Foundations of Excellence', which run through all Trust schools, have been the framework for our sector-leading success so far. These core principles have led to the City of London and COLAT being recognised as the best performing academy chain for progress and attainment of disadvantaged children for two years in a row in The Sutton Trust's annual report, 'Chain Effects' (2016 and 2017). This fuels our determination to continue to develop the work we do, while remaining focused on the ambitions for our schools and making a significant difference to children's lives.

In striving for excellence in all aspects of our work, we are acutely aware that this will only be achieved through hard-working and motivated staff. We therefore ensure that we invest in our people, allowing them to grow and achieve their career goals within the Trust or beyond. We are committed to providing first-rate training and development opportunities to all our staff, in addition to excellent career advancement opportunities within our growing Trust. In the classroom, we expect the kind of exemplary behaviour that allows our staff to generate exceptional learning outcomes for our children. Being sponsored by the City of London Corporation also means our staff benefit by having access to a huge range of resources, events and exciting learning opportunities that other Trusts are simply not able to offer.

We are always looking for like-minded individuals to join us on our journey. Making the choice to work for COLAT means making the choice to be part of an evolving, ambitious and supportive Trust where you are valued, encouraged and can develop your specific talents whatever they may be. We look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully,

Mark Emmerson

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the position of Sixth Form Coordinator with the City of London Academy Highgate Hill. We are delighted that you have chosen to apply to our academy and welcome your application.

City of London Academy Highgate Hill opened in September 2017 as a mixed, all ability, non-denominational academy inheriting four cohorts (Years 8 to 11) from what was previously, Mount Carmel Catholic College for Girls. You will be joining our school at an exciting time due to our Sixth Form opening in September 2022.

We aim to provide a world class education for our students - making them 'well-rounded' individuals. Our vision is to therefore create an academy that will exemplify 'Outstanding' secondary practice, evidenced by excellent attainment and progress for all pupils. Highgate Hill provides learning experiences that reflect the characteristics for which the City of London is known around the world:

- High expectations, aspirations, excellence and a belief that all can succeed
- Creativity, innovation and enterprise, alongside tradition and heritage are championed
- Developing people who are confident, resilient, compassionate and democratic

If you feel that you can make a positive contribution please apply. We look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully,

About us

The City of London Academies Trust is driven by the ambition to provide world-class experiences and deliver exceptional educational outcomes for the young people we serve.

Combining the heritage and tradition of the Corporation of London with a refreshingly innovative and enterprising approach to teaching and learning, we aim to ensure that every one of our schools can be judged as Outstanding within three years of joining the Trust.

Our academies draw upon the best traditions, institutions, heritage and historical successes of the City Corporation and London. We deliver life-transforming learning experiences allowing all our pupils, whatever their background, to make a positive contribution to their local, national and global communities.

The City of London, its schools and academies are characterised by:

- High expectations, aspirations, excellence and a belief that all can succeed;
- Combining creativity, innovation and enterprise, alongside tradition and continuity;
- Developing people who are confident, resilient, compassionate and democratic.

Although all schools within the Trust are different, they all subscribe to the same ethos. All City academies are expected to exhibit the five attributes of outstanding educational provision. These simple and effective principles, our Foundations of Excellence, are the essential drivers that deliver outstanding outcomes for learners and are key to the success of City of London academies. They are:

High expectation leadership	Dynamic and skilled leadership from school leaders and governors founded in the core belief that all children can succeed.
Exemplary behaviour	Behaviour for learning based on a set of defined core values that promote engagement, respect, tolerance, probity, curiosity, resilience, creativity and independence.
Outstanding creative teaching	Highly skilled teaching that inspires, engages, supports and challenges learners whatever their starting point.

Assessment that informs intervention	Target-setting and assessment systems that set challenging targets and provide data that supports intervention if that progress is not being made.
A challenging curriculum	A formal curriculum that matches the high expectations of progress providing a range of high status qualifications for each learner. A rich informal curriculum that supports the wider development of each learner through personal, sporting, creative and employer experiences.

About our school

City of London Academy Highgate Hill opened in September 2017 as a mixed, all ability and non- denominational academy.

Our vision: to create an academy that will exemplify 'Outstanding' secondary practice, evidenced by excellent attainment and progress for all pupils. Highgate Hill provides learning experiences that reflect the characteristics for which the City of London is known around the world:

- High expectations, aspirations, excellence and a belief that all can succeed
- Contributing creativity, innovation and enterprise alongside tradition and heritage
- Developing people who are confident, resilient, compassionate and democratic

The academy's sixth form will open in a state of the art building in September 2022.

City of London Academies Trust asks that all potential employees highlight any relationships to school governors or employees to ensure all applicants are treated fairly. For example, it may be inappropriate to offer someone a position within an organisation where they work for a family member or asking someone to take a position where they manage grants for voluntary services when their family works for a relevant voluntary organisation.

City of London Academies Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and applicants for vacant posts are expected to share this commitment. If you are offered a job, the offer will be conditional on satisfactory pre-employment checks. These can include: identity, references, qualifications and other evidence, e.g. driving licence, as well as a medical questionnaire, and a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.

Please provide details of two referees, one of whom should be your present/most recent employer. References will not be accepted from relatives or friends. References are requested for all shortlisted candidates unless you specifically request us not to do so. Open references will not be accepted.

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. If you are appointed, you will be required to complete a DBS check. Any information received from the DBS will be treated in the strictest confidence. Having a criminal record will not exclude you from appointment, unless it is considered that the conviction renders you unsuitable to work with children.

Under the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000, it is a criminal offence if an individual who is disqualified from working with children knowingly applies for, offers to do, accepts or does any work with children.

The role is covered by part 7 of the Immigration Act 2016 and therefore the ability to speak fluent spoken English is an essential requirement for this role.
