

Job Description

Role: Head of PE

Responsible to: Headteacher

Responsible for: PE Team

Grade: Inner London Pay Scale (£28,660-47,298) TLR 2b (£4,440)

Core purpose of post

- To secure high standards of teaching and learning across the PE department
- To lead the development of the PE curriculum and its effective assessment
- Maximise the impact of PE and sport across the school
- To make a significant contribution to the quality of teaching and learning across the school as a member of the Head of Department team

Key Accountabilities

Leadership of all aspects of the curriculum within the department:

- Leadership of all aspects of the curriculum within the department
- Leadership of all aspects of teaching, learning, assessment and behaviour management
- Implementation of all school policies
- Evaluation of levels of progress and attainment and coordination of interventions by close monitoring and scrutiny of data
- Implementation of internal and external assessments, and requirements/syllabi
- Regular line management of post holders within the department

Membership of the school's Extended Leadership Team

- Make a significant contribution to the school self-evaluation process.
- Make a significant contribution to the development, evaluation and review of all policies that relate to teaching and learning and behaviour for learning across the school