Bonjour! Guten Tag! Hola!

Dear Prospective Applicant,

Thank you for showing an interest in this key 'Subject Leader' post at Samuel Ward Academy. We are looking to appoint a well-qualified and experienced professional as Head of MFL, to lead the teaching of languages (currently French and German, but possibility of introducing Spanish) at the school. This post represents an exciting prospect to lead a truly dedicated and stable team of experienced professionals. The successful candidate will be a successful GCSE teacher, looking to lead an established department and be excited by the prospect of the impact you can have across the student body, raising the profile of internationalism at the school. The MFL department is well resourced and has a clear vision for future successes, supported excellently through senior line-management and Trust MFL curriculum leader. French and German are currently increasingly popular options at GCSE, which reflects the growing demand for the English Baccalaureate at the school. The successful candidate will join a vibrant and engaged Middle Leadership Team who are squarely focused on improving student outcomes and a positive culture of behaviour, teaching and learning. We have clear values by which we work, and if you share a commitment to inclusive education, so that all students can develop to reach their full potential, make a positive contribution to society and are given excellent foundations to lead enriching and interesting lives, then this could be the role for you!

We are a member of Unity Schools Partnership, working closely with colleagues in other schools in Haverhill and across the region to share best practice and develop innovative approaches supported by an experienced and well-resourced central team. There will be the opportunity for the successful candidate to work alongside colleagues in the other Trust schools including other secondaries and Sixth Form provisions. By working together, we will be able to ensure smoother transitions, greater access to resources, more opportunities to develop the curriculum, greater sharing of expertise and a common approach to supporting all of our students to achieve. Together, our commitment is to provide excellent education, excellent care and excellent opportunities as part of an 'all-through' education; from early years to A-Levels.

Our staff and students are our biggest assets. Staff care deeply for their students, drive standards in teaching and learning (for example, through the newly established 'Pedagogical Leadership Team') and work together to create a culture in which everyone feels like they belong. Students are engaging, strive to achieve and take pride in belonging to their school. They are a joy to teach and motivated by the strong pastoral and academic life of the school. Students enjoy their learning, behaviour around the school is good, and parents support the aims and ambitions of the school. In fact, feedback from a parent recently was a joy to read:

My two children (Y7 and Y9) are thoroughly enjoying school. They are animated when talking about it, they tell me about lessons and what they are doing and they are forming some meaningful teacher-pupil relationships which are helping them to feel settled and valued at school. They are also energised by the rewards system - they love the golden tickets... It's lovely to get messages and phone calls home and they are super proud when I tell them. I would like to say thank you for that... Please pass this on to all your staff - it takes team effort and continued commitment, and everyone pulling in the same direction to make system and culture changes work but from our point of view, it is certainly working and I can't thank you all enough.

(Parent, December 2024)

Finally, if you are passionate about working with young people and really believe you can join our team in making a difference, then I warmly invite you to apply. This will enable you to take a look at us in more detail and really experience at first hand the friendly and professional environment we have established.

If you would like more information, or to visit, please do not hesitate to contact us and I will be more than happy to accommodate your request.

MFL AT SWA

Head of MFL: Sarah Holmes – due to retire in August 2025
 Alex Bourne – Teacher of MFL
 Angela Oviedo – Teacher of MFL
 Pip Matos-Ogunfowora – Teacher of MFL

The MFL Department at SWA aims to prepare them to be truly global citizens who can make use of international travel and enhanced access to jobs and culture. In learning another language pupils will also develop transferable skills in literacy, analytical thought, perseverance, and critical thinking.

Learning across KS3 and KS4 is sequenced by term, across a broad topic 'area' linked to appropriate grammar, so that students have language which is useful and important for communication. The broad topic areas give students language that they need to communicate in both spoken and written forms. Phonics are promoted throughout, so that pupils can speak and pronounce French and German independently. The nature of the curriculum is that it is cyclical, and that phonics, grammar and vocabulary will always thread through the topic blocks and be revisited and deepened at appropriate stages, as students progress throughout their study. We want students to take away a love and interest of French and German culture around the world and spark a curiosity of visiting the countries themselves.

In our language lessons we incorporate lots of discussion on important topics which are happening in the world and relate these to what young French and German people are concerned with, such as climate change, to demonstrate to students to be thinking globally and in having much more in common with their European peers than they may have first thought.

Wherever the future takes our pupils, a foreign language will enhance their chances and make them stand out from the crowd. We hope pupils will enjoy the benefits of being multilingual in both in their personal and later in their professional lives.

The subject is currently taught in classrooms within our new 'B Block' building with interactive whiteboards, office, excellent resources including interactive whiteboards and up to date schemes of learning. The department further benefits from the guidance of Jo Wilson, Assistant Headteacher (Teaching & Learning), as senior line-manager.
