

CANDIDATE BRIEF
TEACHER OF ENGLISH

LETTER FROM THE HEAD TEACHER

Dear Applicant

I am delighted that you are expressing an interest in working at Queensmead. I took up the position of Head Teacher in 2009 and it fills me with pride when I reflect on what we have achieved in this time and how we continue to build on our outstanding work. We are committed to ensuring that every student at Queensmead excels and has the very best start in life. Our standards are high and our expectations are clear and consistent.

During my time I have seen some exceptional teachers and also witnessed remarkable growth in teachers. I am proud that several members of my leadership team started their careers as NQTs in our school. We are committed to your development and providing you with the opportunities and support to progress in your career.

I wish you luck with the application process and invite you to visit us and see the school for yourself. Indeed, it was the students and the team that inspired me and many others to join Queensmead!

If you have any questions on the recruitment process, please email recruitment@qmschool.org.uk or visit our website:- www.queensmeadschool.org.uk

Yours sincerely

Rhona Johnston

DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

The Queensmead English Department aims to inspire and enthuse our students by providing exciting learning opportunities, both inside and outside of the classroom, that accommodate different learning needs. Literacy skills are embedded not only to create increased confidence but also enable students to access other areas of the curriculum more easily. Students are also encouraged to enjoy books purely for the pleasure of reading.

The team consists of twelve English specialists with a range of experience. Within this team there is a staff member who holds a TLR for developing KS3 studies (in addition to the Department's Head and Assistant Head). The Department has eleven classrooms and one large work room / office. Each full time English Teacher has their own classroom base equipped with an interactive whiteboard.

The English Department delivers an innovative and imaginative curriculum for KS3 students. All schemes of work have recently been revised, and there is culture of resource sharing. A collegiate approach to curriculum planning is encouraged in the Department and colleagues are regularly given the opportunity to share good practice as well as to trial new pedagogical approaches to improve their own practice. The Department studies the AQA GCSE specification for Year 10. At Post 16, English Literature, English Language (both AQA) and Film Studies (EDUQAS) are all taught within the department and are popular A Level choices for our students.

We seek an inspirational, energetic, enthusiastic and committed Teacher of English who is dedicated to achieving high standards and is passionate about learning. You must be self-motivated and able to demonstrate initiative in the planning and teaching of your lessons. An ability to communicate effectively with staff, students and parents is also essential. The English Department is a very supportive and committed team.
