LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT

Grade D - 1 Points 3—4 (Actual Salary £16,756 —£17,019) required for September 2025

30 hours per week, 39 weeks per year (TTO plus 5 training days)

Monday—Friday 08:20—15:05 including a 30 minute lunchbreak.

We are looking for a Learning Support Assistant with a good general education to work in our Learning Support Department. Relevant previous experience is not essential, but would be valued.

The work will be varied and largely involve supporting children aged 11-16 who have special educational needs (both learning and behavioural difficulties). The person appointed will provide in-class support with small groups and one-to-one teaching.

Our well-established Learning Support Team will provide training and support for the successful candidate.

You will need to be literate, numerate, along with a good knowledge of Microsoft Office packages and possess first class communication skills.

We have over 1400 students on roll with approximately 240 students in the Sixth Form. The school is oversubscribed!

Informal visits are welcomed if you would like to see us in action and to learn more about us prior to your application.

Closing date for receipt of applications: Friday 18th July 2025

Interviews expected to be held: Wednesday 23rd July 2025

Please contact our HR department for an application form, further details about this role or to arrange a visit on: recruitment@wollaston-school.net Alternatively you can download details directly from the school website at: www.wollastonschool.co.uk CV's submitted without a fully completed application form will not be considered.

Wollaston School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check and receipt of two positive references one of which MUST be your current or most recent employer.
