Welcome

From Our Headteacher

I am delighted to welcome you to Abraham Moss Community School. In September 2023, we joined the Dean Trust's family of schools, which successfully runs 11 schools across the North-West. Our school has a long-established and positive reputation amongst the local community.

We are one of only a few 'all-through' schools in Manchester with over 1800 pupils from Reception to Year 11. Being an all-through school means our pupils benefit from a seamless transition between year groups and phases; shared expertise and resources, and a curriculum that is sequenced from Early Years to Year 11. At Abraham Moss, pupils enjoy a broad, aspirational and enriching curriculum which aims to provide our pupils with the best possible opportunities to follow their chosen pathways through life.

We celebrate the diversity of our school community, embracing the culture and heritage which permeates school life and helps to broaden pupil experiences and awareness of the world in which they live.

We strive to recruit and train the highest quality people who always place our pupils at the heart of what they do, enabling pupils to see their potential, believe in themselves and succeed in their journey through life.
