Position Summary:	The Teacher of Psychology reports to the Head of Psychology, Ms Marie Buckley, and is expected to teach a full timetable of up to 48 periods (55 minutes / 10 day cycle). This outstanding department, consisting of two full-time teachers alongside a Head of Department, teaches both GCSE (EDEXCEL syllabus) and A-level (CIE syllabus) Psychology. Experience of teaching Psychology at A-level is essential and GCSE would be an advantage. From next year the department will move to teach the AQA International A-level course so experience of teaching this course is desirable. We are looking for an inspirational teacher who is keen to work with the department to further enhance the teaching and learning in the school as well as further developing EAL and digital resources in this area. Teachers are also expected to support the strong curriculum enrichment opportunities offered by the department. Psychology is a popular subject at Shrewsbury International School with a high proportion of students selecting to study Psychology GCSE, many of whom go on to study the subject at A-level and university as well.
General:	Shrewsbury is one of South East Asia's outstanding international schools, with enrolment of 1800 students from Early Years to Sixth Form, exceptional examination results and particular strengths in the creative arts, design and sport. The school itself enjoys a delightful and spectacular setting, right on the banks of the Chao Phraya River in the heart of Bangkok. The school is readily accessed by road and boats, which provide an easy and quick link to Bangkok's Skytrain and the city centre. The link with Shrewsbury School UK (www.shrewsbury.org.uk) is taken very seriously and, year-on-year, develops into a world-class educational partnership.
Candidate Profile:	The successful candidate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • will be a dedicated teacher capable of inspiring students; • will have a full working knowledge of the English National Curriculum and an ability and aspiration to attain high standards; • will have either experience of working with English Language Learners (ELL) or a desire to broaden his / her experience and skills in EAL teaching and learning strategies;

- will have excellent assessment for learning skills;
- will have a flexible approach to working within the school curriculum, co-curriculum and other structures;
- will have demonstrated an appreciation of the value of the extra-curricular dimension in developing the potential of students;
- will have excellent interpersonal skills and a positive approach to professional development particularly in the areas of EAL and ICT;
- will be internationally minded;
- will have the ability to work within and apply all school policies e.g. behaviour management, child protection, Health and Safety, Equal Opportunities etc
