Students and staff share a real sense of pride in the school and its achievements: a pride that we hope you will see if you visit us for interview.

Your Profile

Eager to share your passion for Economics and Business Management, you will be looking for a post that enables you to work with a range of students from all around the world in a truly international setting. Whether it is encouraging intellectual curiosity in our youngest students as they ask big questions about the world, or advising a Grade 12 IB student on the fine tuning of their Internal Assessment data, our Economics and Business Management teachers play a core role in building students' knowledge, skills and appreciation of the world around them. With the opportunity to work within a creative and forward looking Humanities faculty, this post is perfect for teachers who are keen to share ideas, learn from others and set the highest expectations of themselves and their classes.

Amongst other things, you'll be well organised, have a good sense of humour and will want to participate fully in the extra-curricular aspects of school life including the boarding house as well as the classroom. We have a comprehensive learning programme that includes Saturday morning academics and exciting challenges ranging from climbing 4000m peaks to night time ski racing. Ideally, you will already have a basic level of French language and be keen to develop your language skills.
