Subject Department Introduction:

The Economics Office has 18 staff members within a larger Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences currently of 40 teachers. The academic subject area is mostly economics but also with some Business Studies and Accounting classes. Prospective teachers will have a variety of classes from AS, AL and IGCSE Economics, but may also have opportunity for AS/AL Accounting or IGCSE Business Studies. Economics is highly popular throughout the school with more than half of the cohort taking it at GL level and the majority of these continuing through to A Level. Results are very high, with over 80% achieving A/A* at IGCSE and about two thirds at A-Level. Each year a number of students choose to apply to Economics, Accounting & Finance, or Business related courses in top universities in the UK, USA and HK.

We are looking for a dedicated and passionate Economics Teacher to join our team of educators. The ideal candidate will possess a deep understanding of economic principles and a strong commitment to fostering a positive and inclusive learning environment for students. As an Economics Teacher, you will play a crucial role in helping students develop their economic knowledge and critical thinking skills, particularly in the context of Cambridge A Level and IGCSE Economics, Business Studies, and Accounting courses.

Pastoral

Pastoral care is at the heart of what we do at SCIE. All classroom teachers have a role to play in taking care of the whole student promoting their safety, sense of belonging and their wellbeing during their time at the college.

- Form tutor role – most classroom teachers will be required take on a form group of approximately 20 students. The role includes having regular individual mentoring meetings as part of the timetable, having regular form time with the group as well as teaching a weekly PSHE lesson. As the main point of contact for students, form tutors are responsible for getting to know their tutees beyond the classroom. The form tutor role attracts an additional allowance.
- Teachers without a form tutor role may be required to take on additional pastoral duties as required.
- Pastoral professional development – in addition to annual safeguarding training there are additional opportunities to develop your practice in this area and contribute to whole school pastoral development.

Benefits

- Published fixed salary scale (reviewed annually) based on years of teaching experience and annual progression at SCIE
