You will be subject to an enhanced DBS (Disclosure & Barring Service) check.

An application form can be found at www.beaconacademytrust.co.uk

Please forward your electronic applications to beasuccess@beaconacademytrust.co.uk

Please note we will not consider your application unless it is completed on the BMAT application form. If you have any queries regarding the job, please contact the HR Team. Please note the Trust reserves the right to close or extend this advert, therefore we would urge candidates to apply as soon as possible.

Teacher of Science: ROLE PROFILE

General duties and responsibilities

Teaching and Learning. All teachers should:

- Have a good, up-to-date working knowledge and understanding of a range of teaching, learning and behaviour management strategies and know how to use and adapt them, including how to personalise learning to provide opportunities for all learners to achieve their potential.

Assessment and monitoring. All teachers should:

- Know the assessment requirements and arrangements for the subjects/curriculum areas they teach, including those relating to public examinations and qualifications.
- Know a range of approaches to assessment, including the importance of formative assessment.
- Know how to use local and national statistical information to evaluate the effectiveness of their teaching, to monitor the progress of those they teach and to raise levels of attainment.
- Know how to use reports and other sources of external information related to assessment in order to provide learners with accurate and constructive feedback on their strengths, weaknesses, attainment, progress and areas for development, including action plans for improvement.

Subjects and curriculum. All teachers should:

- Have a secure knowledge and understanding of their subjects/curriculum areas and related pedagogy including: the contribution that their subject/curriculum areas can make to cross-curricular learning; and recent relevant developments.
- Know and understand the relevant statutory and non-statutory curricula and frameworks, including those provided through the National Strategies, for their subjects/curriculum areas and other relevant initiatives across the age and ability range they teach.

Literacy, Numeracy and ICT. All teachers should:

- Know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support their teaching and wider professional activities.

Achievement and diversity. All teachers should:

- Understand how children and young people develop and how the progress, rate of development and well-being of learners are affected by a range of developmental, social, religious, ethnic, cultural and linguistic influences;
- Know how to make effective personalised provision for those they teach, including those for whom English is an additional language or who have special educational needs or disabilities, and how to take practical account of diversity and promote equality and inclusion in their teaching;
- Understand the roles of colleagues such as those having specific responsibilities for learners with special educational needs, disabilities and other individual learning needs, and the contributions they can make to the learning, development and well-being of children and young people.
- Know when to draw on the expertise of colleagues, such as those with responsibility for the safeguarding of children and young people and special educational needs and disabilities, and to refer to sources of information, advice and support from external agencies.

Teachers must meet all of the requirements in the Teachers' Standards.

The above-mentioned duties are neither exclusive nor exhaustive, duties and responsibilities of the post may change over time and requirements and circumstances change. The post holder may be required to carry out such other duties as requested by management that are broadly within the level of the post.
