THE MUSIC CURRICULUM AREA

The Music Curriculum area has two full time members of staff and an assistant. The school is visited each week by seven peripatetic teachers covering the orchestral instruments, singing, piano, guitars and percussion.

The Curriculum Area teaches the National Curriculum in Music to Years 7 and 8, each class receiving a weekly lesson lasting for one hour. At the end of Year 8, students are selected to study a bridging year where National Curriculum and GCSE preparation skills are developed through 'Musical Futures' and more formal units. There are GCSE groups in Years 10 and 11 which each receive five sessions of one hour over a 2-week timetable, and A level groups in the Sixth Form which are taught over eleven hours. For A Level, we currently offer AQA A Level Music. We present active lessons which offer integrated musical learning with performing, composing, listening and appraising tasks. We encourage the learning of the basic musical elements through a practical approach which features singing, classroom percussion, keyboards, music ICT software and, where appropriate, use of orchestral instruments.

The Curriculum Area is located in a modern building, centred around a custom-built suite which includes a well-equipped teaching room with 16 iMac computers and a variety of percussion instruments. The iMac's run Garage band, Sibelius 7 and Logic Pro X for effective delivery of Music Technology. The second teaching room is set out for keyboard work, with enough space for singing work in half of the room. There are also three practice rooms equipped with pianos, drum kits, guitars and bass guitars. These are bookable by students during break times as rehearsal spaces but are used during lesson times for instrumental lessons and as break-out practice spaces.

The Curriculum Area has a busy extra-curricular programme with a concert band, woodwind ensemble, jazz/soul band, two choirs, boys vocal group, Brass group, String group, Guitar group, Percussion group and GCSE support drop-in session. There are three concerts each year, one student led and two led by the department. The music department is also actively involved in rehearsing the whole school musical each year.

Examination achievements over the past few years have included a 100% pass rate at GCSE and A level. Students have also achieved impressive results at our termly entries for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, Trinity College and Rock School instrumental examinations.
