Headteacher: Mr Paul Kassapian MA

Dear Colleague,

Thank you for showing an interest in working at St Bernard's Catholic Grammar School. Further details of this post are available from this web page and other information about the school is included on the school's website. I started as Headteacher in September 2017 and I am very proud of our student's achievements and the dedication and commitment of our staff, parents and extended school community.

The excellent work of the students and the staff is highlighted and properly commended in our most recent Ofsted report. This report (October 2011) judges the students' personal development and wellbeing to be outstanding as is their behaviour and their enjoyment of school. We are now at a successful and important stage of the school's development and expansion and I look forward, with the support of our dedicated teaching and support staff, to ensuring this continues long into the future.

I certainly feel that St Bernard's is an excellent school, but please don't just take my word for it. Come and see us at work and consider if this is a school where you could make a significant contribution on behalf of our pupils and be professionally supported and developed in your role.

Thank you for taking an interest in our school and, if you pursue your application, I look forward to meeting you.

Yours sincerely

Paul Kassapian
Headteacher
