Preference for English/History as a second subject

An exciting opportunity to lead Religious Education in a new, purpose-built free school in its third year of operating

We are looking to appoint a talented and forward-thinking Subject Leader for RE to join our Humanities team from September. A passion for your subject as well as a desire to make a difference are essential.

The successful candidate will:

- Be accountable for leading, managing and developing the RE programme across the school.
- Develop the intent and implementation of the curriculum to achieve the desired impact, leading students to appreciate the subject and its application.
- Be a team player with excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Be flexible and willing to go to great lengths to ensure the success of this new school.
- Be dedicated to contributing to key areas of the School Development Plan.
- Be able to demonstrate proven leadership qualities.
- Be able to make a full contribution in the duties and line management of the school.
- Contribute weekly to the extracurricular programme.

Further details can be found on the school's website: <https://www.heathsidewalton.org>

To apply please submit the school's Teaching Application Form and a letter of application addressed to the Head of School to: jobapplications@heathside.surrey.sch.uk explaining how your experience and skills to date meet the job profile and person specification and what makes you an ideal candidate.

Closing date: Midday on Tuesday 14th May 2024.

Applications will be considered as they are received. We reserve the right to make an appointment prior to the closing date.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting child welfare. Applicants must undergo child protection screening, including checks with past employers and Enhanced DBS disclosure with Children's Barred List check. Committed to equal opportunities, we welcome applications from all sections of the community.
