We are a vibrant, dedicated faculty looking for a talented professional to join us on our journey towards good.

This is a full time, permanent post with a start date of 15th April ideally but we could accommodate a 1st September 2024 start.

The closing date for applications is 9am Monday 29th January 2024.

Interviews will take place Monday 5th February 2024.

The Department

The Applied Faculty at Dinnington High School is a committed and professional team of expert staff with a wealth of expertise and experience. We pride ourselves in working collaboratively and sharing resources. The Applied Faculty comprises of the following subject areas: Health & social care, psychology, child development, EPQ, sociology, business studies and ICT.

We are dedicated to ensuring all groups of students are successful. Our priority in this is developing a mastery curriculum that includes fluency, consistent pedagogy, shared resources, effective assessment and feedback, that builds from starting points in KS3 into KS4 and KS5. To ensure fundamentals are embedded at each stage.

We are committed to continuous improvement in our teaching and learning and we support colleagues in the faculty to fully utilise a selection of collaborative learning structures to develop students' oracy and literacy skills.

The focus for all our students at Dinnington High School is on continually raising attainment and we have recently introduced a range of whole-school and departmental strategies to achieve this as we go into the next academic year. We are accelerating towards our best ever outcomes so this is an extremely exciting time to join the Applied Faculty and help shape its future success
