Vacancy Number: TCAT000099
Vacant Position: Teacher of Performing Arts (Drama)
Home School: Hessle High School & Sixth Form College

The Vacancy

An opportunity has arisen for a suitable individual to work within The Hessle Academy as a Teacher of Performing Arts (Drama), as part of The Arts Department working on a 0.8 contract (with flexibility for a suitable candidate).

The Academy

At Hessle Academy, we think our students are extraordinary. Each year they achieve outcomes that are consistently above the national average while regularly dazzling us with their talents in the Arts and Sport and their dedication to community work.

We couldn't achieve this without our staff – our greatest asset. They are talented, professional, immensely dedicated to the success of our students and committed to their own professional development.

At Hessle Academy, we value our staff and take their wellbeing seriously, with a commitment to reducing workload over the next three years, an annual staff Wellbeing Day and an active staff social committee. Consequently, Ofsted (September 2018) noted that, 'morale is high'.

As one of the schools in The Consortium Academy Trust, we offer significant career development opportunities for our staff and we expect your commitment in return. We think our students deserve it.

The Candidate

This is an exciting time for an ambitious and innovative teacher to join a successful and committed team. We are looking for someone with excellent teaching and communication skills, who will be creative, enthusiastic and committed.

The successful candidate will hold a Degree or equivalent in a field related to Drama and have the ability to transfer their enthusiasm and knowledge of the subject to students across the age and ability range.

They will be a talented and creative teacher, consistently delivering high quality lessons. The successful candidate will have a passion for their subject and a desire to inspire students to develop their love of Drama.
