and Application Process

Overview

Fettes College is one of the UK's foremost independent co-educational boarding and day schools. Situated in Edinburgh, a city rich in history, learning and culture, Fettes College is a centre of educational excellence, a reputation it has held for one hundred and fifty years.

Fettes College Guangzhou (FCG), which opened its doors in September 2020, is the first overseas campus of Fettes College. The partnership of Fettes College and Bright Scholar Group bring depth of educational experience from both the UK and China. The new school is closely linked to Fettes College and shares its ethos and vision: to provide the highest quality holistic, and broad-based education that stretches and challenges its pupils, equipping them with the qualifications, skills and personal qualities that enable them to flourish and succeed at school and beyond.

Fettes College Guangzhou is located on a spacious, world-class campus in Zengcheng, bordered by forests and hills, and yet is within one hour's drive of Guangzhou city centre and Baiyun International Airport. The campus has been designed with flair and imagination to capture the unique character and features of Fettes' Edinburgh campus.

Our Heritage

Fettes College is named after Sir William Fettes, twice Lord Provost of Edinburgh, a citizen amongst the most highly respected of his generation. Having lost his only son and heir in 1815, Sir William devoted his wealth to ‘the maintenance, education and outfit of young people’. His passionate concern for the care, welfare and education of young people has been at the heart of the Fettes College ethos throughout its history, and it remains our guiding principle today and in the future.

The size of the original bequest ensured that celebrated nineteenth-century architect, David Bryce, create a magnificent design for Fettes College – and experts agree it to be one Scotland’s outstanding buildings.

Fettes College first opened in 1870 educating fifty-three boys. Under the formidable founding Headmaster, Dr Potts, the School quickly gained a reputation for academic and sporting excellence that has grown richer over time.

Over the course of the past century and a half, a remarkable number of graduates from the College (Old Fettesians) have drawn on the breadth and depth of the education they received to achieve success and distinction in the world in a wide variety of careers including: politics, law, commerce, industry, the Arts and Sciences, and in the service of their country.

It is against the background of this history and tradition that Fettes College Guangzhou opens with the intention of being the premium boarding school in China.

Ethos

The ethos and guiding principles of Fettes College Guangzhou mirror those of its Scottish parent. Fettes College takes great pride in being a community that believes in mutual support and co-operation and in creating a happy, purposeful environment that encourages boys and girls to flourish and develop fully the skills and interests that they possess.

At Fettes College Guangzhou we strive to replicate this ethos by nurturing the individual while fostering a happy well-ordered and caring community with strong family values at its core. To this end, like Fettes College, we do our utmost to ensure our students:

- Value a sense of community and service, and develop a clear sense of right and wrong, equipping them for life beyond Fettes

- Are encouraged to stretch and challenge themselves in everything they undertake

Our mission at FCG is to develop broadly educated, confident and thoughtful individuals who are prepared for life beyond school and all the opportunities and challenges it brings.

Life in Guangzhou

Guangzhou has developed very similarly to Hong Kong and has a real feel of East-meets-West. Twice a year, Guangzhou, which has become the hub for trade in Southern China, hosts the world's largest trade fair, the Canton Fair. Guangzhou, formerly Canton, is one of the largest cities in China, located in the southern part of the country just over the border from Hong Kong and Macau, which are both less than two hours away from the school. Guangzhou is considered to be one of China's first-tier cities. Beyond its long history and distinct Cantonese culture, Guangzhou is an international business hub thanks to its location along the Pearl River delta. In addition to the business opportunities here for expats, there are plenty of things to do in Guangzhou, hence living in this city will be both enjoyable and culturally enriching.

An ancient but dynamic city, Guangzhou impresses visitors with both its vivid modern ambiance and unique traditional Lingnan indigenous culture.
