Primary Objective:

Create positive learning environments which ensure that students are stimulated and encouraged to develop their full potential academically, physically, and emotionally. As part of the School Leadership Team, provide innovative educational leadership in the development and delivery of educational programs to achieve the optimal outcomes for students.

Context Statement:

Gunbalanya School is committed to developing senior secondary pathways for students with the range of industry links in and around the region. The challenge is for students to meet the requirements of the new NTCET, and the construction of alternate pathways to training and work. The ST2 School to Work Pathways teacher works with students, parents, Principals, community members, business, industry and Government officers to formulate senior secondary pathways for students.

Key Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Improve student outcomes in access, engagement, well-being and learning achievement through leading the case management of senior students.
2. Plan and implement senior secondary programs including VET delivery in collaboration with the Principals and ST Secondary at both sites that ensures effective learning occurs. These will be based on the relevant NTCET and evidence on students' learning needs.
3. Integrate information and communication technologies to enhance student learning.
4. Engage in critical review of knowledge and practices through examining evidence and data collaboratively with colleagues.
5. Use evidence as a basis for self-reflection, ongoing learning and improvement.
6. Build capability in teaching and learning in self and others.
7. Lead teaching and learning initiatives in the classroom and across classrooms.
8. Contribute to and actively engage with system initiatives.

Selection Criteria

Essential:

1. Registration with the NT Teacher Registration Board and current Working with Children Clearance Notice.
2. Well-developed skills in all aspects of contemporary programming and planning, teaching, learning and assessment.
3. Demonstrated ability to implement senior secondary pathways provisions for students.
4. High level interpersonal skills and demonstrated strong inter-cultural communication and negotiation skills.
5. Demonstrate specific attributes required in regional and remote settings including the ability to; be adaptive, flexible and enthusiastic in a cross-cultural setting, respond positively to difference and show strong composure in unforeseen circumstances.
6. Demonstrated ability to engage in and deliver on system wide strategic initiatives.
7. NT Drivers licence.
8. Certificate IV in Workplace Assessment and Training or Careers.

Approved: 20 October 2018
