REIGATE GRAMMAR SCHOOL VIETNAM

Reigate Grammar School Vietnam (RGSV) is a not-for-profit international school that blends the best of a traditional British independent school education and Vietnamese values and principles, within the dynamic culture of the city of Hanoi, for pupils aged 3-18 years old.

RGSV started life as The International School of Vietnam (ISV) and began its educational journey with only a handful of pupils in 2013. Since then, the school has grown through steady development and clear milestones, guided throughout by Founder Ms MAI Bich Thuy and her long-term vision for a leading international education in Vietnam

This journey began in 2007, when Ms Thuy and her team started the not-for-profit project to build ISV. After approval by the city authorities in 2009, the team spent three years from 2010–2013 completing construction, and opened the first academic year in 2013-2014.

As the school established itself, ISV was authorised in June 2014 by Cambridge International Education to teach Cambridge Secondary 1 and Cambridge IGCSE, creating a strong academic pathway and a clear set of external benchmarks for pupils.

Alongside this, the Founder's ambition was always for the school to become an IB World School. Following the authorisation process, ISV became an IB school, teaching the Primary Years Programme (PYP) from 2016 and the Diploma Programme (DP) from 2018, strengthening the school's focus on inquiry, international mindedness, and high academic expectations.

Building on these foundations, in December 2021 the school was officially renamed Reigate Grammar School Vietnam (RGSV), becoming the first UK independent school brand partnership in Vietnam through collaboration with Reigate Grammar School UK. This partnership reinforces our mission to nurture, empower and connect pupils with their local and global communities.

RGSV is accredited by the Council of British International Schools (COBIS), reflecting strong practice against British international school standards and supporting our continued focus on school improvement.

Today, RGSV is recognised among leading international schools in Vietnam. IB Diploma Programme outcomes sit above the IB world average, and Cambridge IGCSE outcomes show consistently strong performance across subjects. Our graduates progress to universities across Vietnam, the UK, the Netherlands, Canada, the USA, Japan, Hong Kong, and Australia.

With the untiring efforts of our staff, constant support of parents, and the passionate performance of our pupils, the small beginning continues to grow and has had the opportunity to touch the pinnacles of success. Today, RGS Vietnam is a noted academic powerhouse of our city, with over 400 students from 30 nationalities. Its high standards are providing our community with a solid education, as we continue to strive to be a quality IB World School, living up to our school motto: “NUTURE-EMPOWER-CONNECT”.

RGS is the leading co-educational day school in the UK and was awarded School of the Year by the Tatler in 2020-21. In 2019 it received the prestigious UK Independent School of the Year award for Wellbeing and Pastoral Care. In 2021, RGS was named School of the Year at the UK Social Mobility Awards. REIGATE GRAMMAR SCHOOL INTERNATIONAL

The Board of RGS has committed to the creation of a family of schools across the world and Reigate Grammar School International (RGSi) is the school's commercial arm that is responsible for working with our partners overseas.

Reigate Grammar School International (RGSi) was established in 2016 as a 100% owned subsidiary of Reigate Grammar School with a strategic vision to establish international schools and to provide education consultancy services around the world under licence to Reigate Grammar School. This includes sharing its ethos; pupil welfare and pastoral model; teaching and learning philosophy; curriculum design expertise and operational systems.

This is a notable chapter in Reigate Grammar School's 350-year history. By developing international connections, RGS aims to establish cultural and learning links to provide visit and exchange opportunities for students and staff. Developing international links and perspectives opens up cultural and learning opportunities cross continents. RGSi is firmly established with schools in China, the Kingdom of Saudi and Vietnam, with more collaborations in the planning stage.

INFORMATION ABOUT HANOI

Hanoi, situated within a bend on the right bank of the Red River, has been the capital city of Vietnam since AD 1010 (apart from a period in the early 1800s when the Emperor of the Nguyen dynasty decided to rule from Hue and the additional use of Saigon and Da Lat as the capital of French Indochina) - and 2010 marked the 1000-year anniversary of its establishment. Hanoi's cultural heritage is rich, combining aspects of this ancient city development with the colonialism brought by the French in the mid 19th century.

Hanoi is a small city with a compact historic centre, lakes, tree-lined boulevards, narrow alleys, villas, churches, temples and pagodas, shared by a population of 2.6 million people using about 1.8 million motorbikes.

Hanoi has a warm humid subtropical climate (i.e. it rains a lot). Summers (May to September) are hot and humid, with most of the year's 1.68 metres of rainfall (and sticky at 80-100% humidity). Winters (November to March) start mild and relatively dry becoming more humid, with spring (April) bringing the chance of light rains. There is usually cloud/fog in the winter (for example, February only has 1.8 hours/day of sunshine) and it can be cold especially around Halong Bay to the east. Temperatures have ranged from 2.7oC (36.9oF) to 40.4oC (105oF) but more usually 13oC-25oC in winter and 24oC-32oC in summer.

The local people of Hanoi are friendly, hard-working, busy about their everyday lives and helpful when you are trying to make yourself understood in order to buy those particular bananas or to get the taxi driver to go exactly where you want.

Working and living in Hanoi offers a huge array of benefits. There are many places to visit in Hanoi in addition to the restaurants and cafes, museums, temples, pagodas, churches, modern as well as traditional theatres and some very grand hotels.

There are numerous lakes and parks within the city with good walking paths: Hoan Kiem Lake, Bay Mau Lake, Truc Bach Lake or part of the large Tay Ho (West Lake) as well as a myriad of smaller ones scattered across the city. The Botanical Gardens is also a pleasant park for walking.

Hanoi Opera House is host to a wide range of international musical performances (as well as being a superb example of French colonial architecture) and features regular performances by the Hanoi Philharmonic Orchestra of the Vietnam National Academy of Music.

There are cinemas showing films in English such as the multiplexes in the Vincom Towers and The Garden Centre shopping complex and the French art-house cinema, Hanoi cinematheque, which shows original language films with English subtitles. Hanoi Water Park is a family attraction north of the city centre with the usual wet rides and play areas.

Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum Complex is a traffic free area with parks, pagodas, memorials, monuments and museums located in Ba Dinh Square where the Vietminh leader read the Declaration of Independence on September 2nd 1945 establishing the Democratic Republic of Vietnam. The imposing structure is modelled on Lenin's tomb in Moscow.

Thang Long Water Puppet Theatre is a treat for adults as well as children with live music, singing and a unique story-telling model.

The Army Museum details Vietnam's struggle against colonial powers, with photos and exhibitions from both the French and American wars appropriately located on Dien Bien Phu Street - named after the city near the Laotian border west of Hanoi and the significant defeat over the French in 1954. The National Museum of Vietnamese History is housed in the old French consulate with a collection of historic relics from prehistoric carvings to Buddhist and Han tomb artefacts.

One-pillar Pagoda is a wooden reproduction of a pagoda built in 1049.

Quan Su Pagoda is a very important Buddhist temple constructed in the 15th century now the headquarters of the Vietnamese Central Buddhist Congregation.

Hoa Lo Prison was built by the French in 1896 and used to house prisoners of war including Lt. Everett Alvarez, the 1st official American pilot shot down over Vietnam; Pete Peterson, the ambassador to Vietnam; and U.S. Senator John McCain. Nicknamed the Hanoi Hilton, it documents the prisoners' history from a Vietnamese perspective.

Other museums include the Revolutionary Museum, Vietnam Ethnology Museum, Vietnam Museum of Fine Arts and the Women's Museum: enough to keep you steeped in Vietnamese history and culture throughout your stay.

Beyond Hanoi, Vietnam offers endless possibilities: mountains, wetlands, forests, national parks, animal sanctuaries, beaches, and coastlines... further afield an amazing array of Asian opportunities awaits.
