MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- You are required to carry out the duties as set out in the relevant paragraphs of the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document. The post requires you to teach pupils in the age range 11 to 19 and with others outside that age range as required for transition and outreach work.
- In carrying out these duties you will need to work in compliance with all Academy policies and procedures as set out by the Trust and Governing Body and the reasonable direction from colleagues with the relevant position of responsibility.
- You will have the role of Form Tutor, even when a form has not been assigned to you, and may be asked to carry out some or all of those duties if required.
- In addition you will continuously evaluate and review your role and propose improvements to this Job Description in the light of experience as part of the performance management process. You will also be required to carry out any other additional duties as might reasonable required by the Principal.

- To maintain a thorough and up to date knowledge of the teaching of your subject(s) and take account of wider curriculum developments which are relevant to your work.
- To plan lessons/activities/tutorials and sequences of lessons to meet students' individual learning needs
- To use a range of appropriate strategies and follow Academy policies for teaching/tutoring, behaviour management and classroom management
- To do all that you can to ensure that you safeguard and promote the welfare of students in the Academy
- To set well-grounded consistent expectations for students in your teaching and tutorial groups using information about prior attainment
- To assess, monitor and record the progress of students in your teaching (and tutorial groups) and give them clear and constructive feedback
- To do all you can to ensure that, as a result of your teaching (and tutoring), your students achieve well relative to their prior attainment, making progress as good as or better than similar students nationally and in the Academy
- To take responsibility for your own professional development and use the outcomes to improve your teaching (and tutoring) and your students' learning
- To make an active contribution to the policies, aspirations and plans of your Department and the Academy.
