

Wellington College International Tianjin

TEACHER OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS STUDIES

Job Description

Reports to: Master, Head of Senior School and Head of Humanities

Wellington College is committed to providing world-class educational opportunities in the city of Tianjin. We seek to recruit and develop staff members who are fully engaged with the stated vision of the school – [to] “aspire to create a caring, international community that develops well-rounded individuals with strong values and the skills to thrive within an ever-changing global society” and who are guided in their professional and personal conduct by the core Wellington values – courage, respect, integrity, kindness and responsibility. In this way, the post holder should regard the following outline of the job description not as a checklist of things to achieve, but as a starting point for their growth in the role

I General role description:

A Teacher of Economics and Business Studies is directly responsible to the Head of Humanities. The teacher is primarily responsible for the planning, preparation and delivery of timetabled lessons. Homework should be set regularly and all work assessed and recorded in accordance with the school's assessment policy.

Economics and Business Studies are vibrant and continuously changing subjects. A Teacher of Economics and Business Studies is expected to keep up to date with developments in the area and, as part of the Economics and Business Studies team, contribute to continuous curriculum development and the preparation of department resources under the guidance of the Head of Humanities.

The teacher is likely to take responsibility for students ranging from Year 10 to Year 13 including teaching IGCSE and A level. Note that the school has a high proportion of EAL students and the teacher is expected to plan for this and ensure that lessons are adequately differentiated so that all students can access learning.

The teacher is likely to take responsibility for a tutor group and is expected to contribute to the pastoral aspects of the school.

2 Knowledge, Experience and Profile

Required Qualifications / Skills:

- a) A relevant degree and professional teaching qualification is essential
- b) A passion for the subject and a desire to share this with as wide a range of students as possible
- c) Experience in designing and delivering progressive design and technology curricula
- d) Knowledge of CIE A Level /IGCSE level curricula, their delivery and assessment
- e) Fluency in written and spoken English to enable effective communication within working relationships
- f) Puts the wellbeing of the student at the heart of what they do and can demonstrate how they will support the development of the school's values, mission and vision.
- g) Experience of using technology in education is desirable
- h) Honesty, integrity, compassion, and a good sense of humour
- i) Strong organizational, self-management and problem-solving skills

“Aligned with the recommendations of the International Task Force on Child Protection, we hold ourselves to a high standard of effective recruiting practices with specific attention to child protection.”

ITFCP Statement of Commitment

Please note this position is subject to an enhanced Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure. Wellington College International Tianjin is committed to equality and diversity. The College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment