Teaching and Learning Support Assistant (1:1)

Brookmead School is looking to appoint someone who has significant experience of working as a qualified teaching and learning support assistant with children who have additional needs.

What can we offer you?

- A school who put children at the centre of everything we do
- A fantastic team of staff who support each other and have a genuine love for their job
- Ongoing professional development
- A beautiful outdoor learning environment
- A senior leadership team who are approachable, who listen and who genuinely care for the whole school community
- A team of staff who have the highest aspirations for every child in our school community
- A school that brings learning to life and life to learning

What can you offer?

- A love of working in a school and with primary aged children
- Previous experience of working on a 1:1 basis with children who have special educational needs
- Experience of implementing learning support plans with children who have special educational needs
- Experience of working with children with communication and interaction difficulties
- The ability to 'think on your feet' when working with children
- You work well as part of a team
- A good sense of humour!

Start date: As soon as possible

Contract: term time only

Salary: £9,562 (22 hour contract but there is potential for overtime salary based on flexibility of candidate to do additional hours per week, National Joint Council range to be reviewed in September)

There is flexibility within this role, should you wish to discuss what this entails further, please call the school office on 01296 668543 to speak to our headteacher. Whilst we are unable to carry out visits in person due to the current Coronavirus situation, we are more than happy to talk to you about our fantastic school and to give you a virtual tour.

Please return your completed application form to Mrs Esther Taylor, Headteacher, via the school office email: office@brookmead.bucks.sch.uk by Friday 26th February 2021.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.
