Haberdashers' Knights Primary is looking to appoint a committed, energetic and enthusiastic individual to play a key role in supporting the provision of quality first teaching to our pupils. You will work closely with the SENCO to plan, organise, and support teaching and learning activities for individual pupils to ensure they make good progress.

Along with other responsibilities, as part of your role you will support the education and social development of pupils under the direction and guidance of the SENCO and class teachers. You will provide support for named pupils to enable them to be fully included and make expected progress. The candidate will monitor and evaluate pupil responses to learning activities through a range of assessment and monitoring strategies against learning objectives.

Haberdashers' Knights Primary is a Haberdashers' Academies Trust South is a multi-academy trust with five primary and four secondary schools in and around south-east London. With roots dating back to the 1600s and a firm place in the wider family of Haberdashers' schools, we are an established name in education. Our mission is for all our children and young people flourish in their lives. We will do this by ensuring our schools are excellent and are a welcome and valued presence in the communities they serve. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and we expect all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. This post falls within the scope of regulated activity. Appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS with list checks (and other relevant checks.) It is an offence to apply for the role if you are barred from engaging in regulated activity with children.

If this role sounds like it's for you, we'd love to hear from you. Full job details and application form available at www.habstrustsouth.org.uk/vacancies
