
English Language and Literature Teacher - August 2025

- Innovative and Thriving School in the Heart of Bangkok
- IGCSE & A-Level
- Job starts in August 2025

Aster International School Bangkok opened in August 2022 with the mission to bring the best of a British-style international education to a beautiful campus in the heart of Bangkok. We have grown to be a vibrant, caring and fun school with over 500 students and a team of exceptional teachers. Due to this growth, we require another English Language and Literature teacher to join the Aster family in August.

We are looking for energetic, innovative and enthusiastic professionals who want to join a school that is growing rapidly. Aster International School Bangkok is a British-style international school, which teaches an enhanced version of the ENC in a modern and purpose-built environment. Our teachers need to be prepared to be leaders as well as learners as we collaborate to create a unique school environment and approach to curriculum delivery.

The Secondary phase at Aster International School Bangkok is a fun and lively environment to work in. We are looking forward to receiving applications from teachers who have experience teaching English language and literature as part of a British-style education. The role will likely include the teaching of English Literature and Language to IGCSE and possibly A-Level classes, making previous exam class preparation something that would be of interest to us. The right candidate will have a passion for delivering the curriculum in an engaging and innovative way.

Aster International School Bangkok is located in the heart of Bangkok, in the Sathorn district. The school is positioned to give easy access to Sathorn, Silom, Sukhumvit and also the riverside area. We have modern and purpose-built facilities that suit mid-twenty-first-century learning needs. The school has specialist teaching areas for languages, Science, art, music, DT, PE and ICT, as well as an auditorium and extensive garden space. The classrooms are large and well-equipped. To learn a little more, please see our website.

Bangkok is an exciting city to live in, and Thailand is a wonderful host for international teachers. The city offers a lifestyle where modern living and traditional Thai culture mix seamlessly. Bangkok is also the gateway to the amazing islands and beaches that

Thailand is known for, as well as a hub for transport in South East Asia, making long-haul and short-haul travel easy and convenient.

We will be building our school around our Wisdom Values:

Wise – We use what we learn in a positive and purposeful way

Intercultural – We celebrate our similarities and differences

Service – We support, help and care for those around us

Decision Makers – We are critical thinkers and do not rush to judgement

Open Minded – We respect each other and are willing to consider new ideas

Movement – We are active learners and learn through doing

Do you want to come and be part of our journey?

To join Aster International School Bangkok our teachers must:

- Be fully qualified teachers
- Have experience with the ENC or a British-style curriculum
- Be innovative, energetic and able to deal with the unexpected
- Offer a skill outside of the classroom for our Extended Curriculum
- Have a good sense of humour and a positive attitude
- Be able to provide a full clean background check enabling you to work with children

Aster International School Bangkok offers a competitive salary, a two-year renewable contract, flight allowance, free tuition places for dependents, private medical insurance, and an annual bonus programme.

How to apply?

- Use the TES quick apply/apply now feature.
- Upload a CV outlining all of your qualifications and work history. Also, include an up-to-date photograph.
- Write a statement setting out why you and Aster are the perfect fit and address it to the Principal, Mr David Figes.
- Include three professional references at the end of your statement and indicate if they can be contacted at the initial application stage or not.
- Interviews for shortlisted candidates will take place via virtual meetings or face-to-face interviews in Bangkok.