Location: London Borough of Croydon | Hours: Full Time | Start Date: September 2025

Salary: Outer London Pay Scale

Join a School Committed to “nurturing the pursuit of greatness today in the leaders of tomorrow”

Coloma Convent Girls' School is a Catholic school with a rich tradition of faith, excellence and service. As part of the St Oscar Romero Catholic Academy Trust, we are committed to nurturing young women who excel academically, grow spiritually and live out Gospel values. Named Best School in Croydon (2021) and ranked the second-best girls' comprehensive by The Times (2022), we are proud to be Croydon's Number One school for progress and attainment (2024) with a Progress 8 score of +0.52. Our Catholic ethos is central to daily school life, with Prayer, Mass and Celebration of the Word embedded in our daily routine. We are blessed with an onsite chapel, a full-time Lay Chaplain and a beautiful Prayer Garden.

We are seeking a dedicated Teacher of Religious Education who is passionate about sharing the Catholic faith and inspiring students to explore theology, ethics and moral philosophy. There are opportunities to teach Key Stages 3-5, helping students deepen their faith and understanding of the world through a Religious lens. Whether you are an experienced teacher or an ECT, this is a unique opportunity to be part of a faith-filled, supportive community where your vocation as an educator can flourish.

What We're Looking For

- Strong teaching ability and understanding of pedagogy.
- Someone fully committed to Catholic education and ethos.
- A passion for nurturing students' faith, values, and understanding of Catholic Social Teaching.
- Excellent organisational and communication skills.
- A desire to contribute to the spiritual life of the school, including liturgies and retreats.
- A desire to support our school mission

At Coloma, we don't just focus on academic excellence, we aim to inspire and nurture every student to reach their full potential. This success is driven by a strong sense of community, care, and support, in an environment that is vibrant and inclusive where staff and students thrive together. You will be joining a school that values collaborative learning, a commitment to excellence and the personal growth of every student. Our extra-curricular activities play a key role in school life, enriching our students' educational experience and we welcome a variety of clubs and activities.

What We Offer

- A supportive and dynamic community, rooted in faith, academic excellence and committed to continuous improvement.
- Opportunities for spiritual and professional development.
- A working environment that prioritises teaching excellence, raising standards and student success.
- The chance to be part of a team where your passion, energy, and dedication will be truly valued.
- A school that invests in enrichment activities, enhancing both students' academic and personal growth.
- An environment with a commitment to inclusivity, where staff and students of all faiths are welcomed.
