Rotherfield
Primary School

<http://www.rotherfieldprimaryschool.co.uk/>

Rotherfield is a vibrant, two form entry school, with Nursery, serving a diverse community in Islington. Rotherfield is situated just off Essex Road in Islington, with good transport links.

Rotherfield is a four storey Victorian building. In the corner of our playground we have kitchen garden beds and fruit trees making our fabulous 'edible garden'. Produce from the garden is used in our curriculum kitchen which was funded and runs in partnership with Jamie Oliver's Better Food Foundation. The school has recently refurbished its EYFS playground and also gets to use some greenspace land opposite the school as an extra playground and outside learning space.

We were rated good at our last inspection (February 2018) and are working hard to continuously improve. Rotherfield is at an exciting phase in its development. We are in a Soft Federation with another Islington School (Newington Green). Our Executive Head works across both schools, and we work closely in partnership with 17 other Islington Schools through a collaborative network called Futurezone.

We have the following staff working across both schools: Home School Worker, Music Specialist, Art Specialist, Spanish Specialist and a Computing Specialist.

The very best way to find out if Rotherfield is right for you is to come and visit us! This will give you a real sense of what it would be like to work here. Our Executive Headteacher or Head of School are always delighted to show candidates around and talk informally about posts available.

Why do staff work here?

Lucy

I joined Rotherfield nearly 4 years ago as a Year 2 teacher and I have hugely enjoyed my time here. Throughout that time I have worked with a variety of excellent support staff and the relationships between staff are friendly and positive, making it a happy place to work.

Having previously worked in Barnet, which is very well respected for its borough support, I was unsure what to expect from Islington. But it has been a fantastic borough to work in. We have regular network meetings where staff from the same year groups gather to discuss and share good practise, as well as supportive visits from borough experts which I know has helped me develop as a teacher.

The children I have taught have always been excited and enthusiastic to learn and through my teaching I feel like I'm having a positive impact on their lives. Children come from a huge range of cultures and backgrounds which makes it an interesting and dynamic environment to teach in.

In my time at Rotherfield I have led the school in 'Art and Environment' as well as now leading 'cooking' which is very high profile at the school. 3 Teaching assistants are trained to cook with small groups of children in the afternoons so that all children who leave Rotherfield have a strong understanding of how to live healthily as well as preparing their own food safely. My role as Art and environment co-ordinator has allowed me to lead some exciting projects that have made the school environment a stimulating and engaging place for children, parents and staff alike. Examples are the recent regeneration of the library, a large playground mural and the stairwell art project where huge panels of wood were painted and designed by children to serve as a permanent display.

Recent changes in timetable have had a really positive impact on learning and I know that other changes are planned to ensure that children at Rotherfield are given an excellent education that equips them well for life.

Ciara

I came to Rotherfield as an NQT about 10 years ago and think so highly of the place that I have not wanted to leave!

The school's location in the dynamic borough of Islington means that it is an interesting and diverse area to live and work in.

In my time at Rotherfield, I have been able to develop professionally through leading a range of subjects including Music, PE and Maths; ultimately becoming part of the Senior Leadership Team as an Assistant Head.

The school has a very special community feel, and has become a home away from home for me. There is great parental involvement through the Friends of Rotherfield; a friendly and hard-working staff and a supportive governing body who really care about the school.

Most of all, the children are wonderful and I consider it a privilege to work at Rotherfield Primary School.

Newington Green is a vibrant, two form entry school, with Nursery and two year old provision, serving a diverse community in Islington. The majority of pupils are of minority ethnic origin with Turkish, Somalian and Bengali being the largest ethnic groups in the school. The school has approximately 50% free school meals entitlement and over 25 languages spoken as first languages in the homes of its pupils.

The school had a multimillion pound refurbishment to the main, and 2 subsidiary buildings. The quality of the learning and working environment is now exceptional. Classrooms have bespoke storage, we have a cookery suite, performance hall, gym hall, dining hall, art studio, Spanish Studio, Music Studio, Parent hub, conference suite and group rooms for each year group. All of our playgrounds have also been redeveloped and the quality of the spaces is fantastic for learning and playing.

On our website you will find many of our school policies. In particular the Learning Policy, Behaviour Policy and Marking and Feedback Policy will help give you an idea of how we work and our expectations here.

You will find the school improvement priorities on our website. These priorities link to all staff appraisal objectives and will give you a flavour of what we are currently developing this academic year.

In 2016 we began a partnership with Rotherfield Primary School. In this partnership we share staff and resources with the aim of securing the best provision for our pupils. We have the following shared staff across both schools: Executive Head, Attendance and Parental Engagement lead, Spanish Specialist, Digital Leader, Music Specialist, and Art and Design Specialist.

The very best way to find out if Newington Green is right for you is to come and visit us! This will give you a real sense of what it would be like to work here. Our Executive Headteacher is always delighted to show candidates around and talk informally about posts available.

Why do staff work here?

Donna

Before I had even finished a tour of the school I knew that Newington Green was where I wanted to work. This was back in May 2011 and my original feeling still applies. The feeling of 'coming home' when I first began working at the school was built on the strong community feel and the supportive nature of the school; pupils, staff and parents.

My role at that time was as an HLTA (Higher Level Teaching Assistant) working specifically with pupils across phase 2 individually, in groups or as a whole class and working with the TA team across this phase.

Over the years my role has been allowed to grow and develop as I did, building on my skills and nurturing them through targeted support and training. This has culminated in my current position in Newington Green as the ICT lead, providing ICT and Computing across the whole school community. The resources which support this, and the use of technology across the curriculum, are constantly being upgraded, an essential feature in our ever changing world.

Every morning though, even though changes are occurring all around us, I still consider myself privileged to be working with the pupils, staff and parents of Newington Green and long may that continue.

Cheska

I joined the team at Newington Green in 2013 and since then I have developed a wealth of professional skills. Previously, I have led science across the school which has given me the opportunity to work with all members of staff providing feedback, support and training as well as providing training across the borough of Islington. I enjoyed the chance to share ideas and good practice with other leaders as well as implementing these in my own school setting.

In 2015, I was given the opportunity to attend the 'Developing Middle Leaders' course. Shortly after completing this, I achieved the role of Assistant Headteacher and Maths leader at NGPS.

Working at Newington Green has allowed me to develop both as a teacher and leader. Having such a strong and supportive team around me, I have recognised my strengths and been able to work effectively to ensure my practice is always of a high standard.

Disclosure & Barring Service / Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013 provides that certain spent convictions and cautions are "protected" and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website, DBS filtering guide.

All school-based jobs are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act as the work brings employees into contact with children who are regarded by the Act as a vulnerable group. Therefore you will be required to declare any convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that are not "protected" (i.e. filtered out) as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.

If you have been shortlisted and invited for an interview, you will be required to give full details of your criminal record, also be able to discuss any details with the selection panel as part of your interview. This information will remain strictly confidential and will only be seen by those responsible for the recruitment decision. The information will be shredded in line with our policy on the handling and storage of information relating to criminal record disclosures. Disclosure of a criminal record will not necessarily debar you from employment with Islington Schools, this will depend upon the nature of the offence(s), frequency and when they occurred.

The application for an enhanced disclosure with barred list information will be verified before your first day of work. Please read the policy on the recruitment and employment of ex-offenders. If you have any queries, please call Islington Human Resources helpdesk on 0207 527 2875.

Declaration

It is a condition of your employment that you comply with the prevailing data protection legislation in force from time to time. Policy on the recruitment and employment of ex-offenders

Background

London Borough of Islington uses the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) to help assess the suitability of applicants and volunteers for positions of trust. We do this in compliance with the DBS's Code of Practice (copies are available from Islington Schools Human Resources or on the internet at www.direct.gov.uk). This policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders is made available to all applicants and volunteers to jobs that require a disclosure.

Policy

The Code of Practice requires us to treat all our job applicants and volunteers who have a criminal record fairly and not to discriminate unfairly against staff and applicants on the basis of a criminal record or other information revealed by a disclosure.

London Borough of Islington is committed to equality of opportunity for all staff. A diverse workforce benefits and adds value to the services we provide. We will be proactive in removing barriers that deny equality to people based on race, gender, disability, ethnic origin, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, age or offending background. Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working for Islington Schools. This will depend upon the nature of the position you have applied for and the background of your offences.

During the application process

When you apply for a job with Islington schools you will be informed if the job you are applying for is subject to a criminal record check. If it is, you will be asked about any criminal record you may have. You should include details of all cautions, reprimands, warnings and convictions. This information is kept confidential and is only seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process. We select applicants for interview based upon their skills, experience and qualifications. A failure to disclose a criminal record (including all cautions, reprimands, warnings and convictions, spent or otherwise) at the application stage will normally lead to the withdrawal of any subsequent job offer.

If you are offered a job at Islington Schools

The job offer will be made subject to satisfactory completion of a criminal record and other checks such as references, medical fitness for the post and any other essential requirements for the post.

All employees/advisers involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences, or will seek appropriate advice before making a decision. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

In the event of the successful candidate having a criminal record, the candidate will have the opportunity of discussing the disclosure with a service manager. As a minimum, the following will be taken into account when deciding whether to confirm the appointment:

- ✓ Whether the conviction or information was disclosed during the application stage;
- ✓ Whether the conviction or information revealed is relevant to the job;
- ✓ How long ago the offence(s) took place;
- ✓ The candidate's age at the time of the offence(s);
- ✓ The number and pattern of offences;
- ✓ Any other relevant circumstances.
