

EARLY YEARS LEADER

PERSON SPECIFICATION

The person specification is a description of the qualifications, skills, experience, knowledge and other attributes (selection criteria) which a candidate must possess to perform the job duties.

The specification should be derived from the job description and forms the foundation for the recruitment process.

Qualifications/Training

- Qualified teacher
- Evidence of continuous professional development and commitment to further professional development.
- Experience in an international school setting.
- Wide range of experience in teaching and leading Early Years within a British context

Motivation

- A passion to teach children from a range of cultural backgrounds.
- Confident in training and mentoring colleagues in the use and application of technology in teaching

Knowledge

- Demonstrate an understanding of the theory of effective teaching and learning and school improvement.
- Possess a knowledge of current initiatives in Early Years education.

Skills

- Reliable with an attention to detail and a commitment to quality.
- Excellent organizational, interpersonal and time-management skills.

Personal Attributes

- High levels of personal integrity.
- Passionate about learning.
- Personable and approachable.
- Able to motivate self and others.
- Positive and enthusiastic.
- Remain calm under pressure.
- Team player
- Confident.
- Loyal.
- Resourceful
- Sense of humour
- Flexible
- Comfortable living and working in a different culture.
- Able to see cultural differences as exciting opportunities.