Questionnaire, July 2019

Required for September 2020
TEACHER OF ENGLISH

Salary includes additional outer fringe annual allowance

An exciting opportunity to join a successful, strongly collaborative department in an over-subscribed 13-18 upper school, committed to offering an outstanding comprehensive education to all students.

This role offers excellent scope for an enthusiastic and inspiring teacher to work in a supportive, energetic and high-achieving school where students are making outstanding progress.

With several English Language and English Literature A Level classes, teaching English at Freman particularly suits colleagues who relish preparing students for public examinations. Standards are high with consistently excellent value added at GCSE and in the Sixth Form.

Applications are welcomed from colleagues with experience, or from newly qualified teachers. An excellent NQT induction programme and July start is available.
