Dear Candidate,

I am delighted that you are considering applying to for the Jewish Studies teacher role at King Solomon High School. We are a unique and wonderful Jewish secondary school, set in the London Borough of Redbridge. Our school is inclusive, and our students and staff come from a range of cultural and religious backgrounds.

I am seeking to appoint committed and dynamic staff, who are passionate about education, leadership and school improvement. We are focusing on embedding powerful knowledge, curriculum rigor and expert teaching practice, informed by educational research and cognitive science .

Are you passionate about raising standards? Are you committed to excellence and rigour? Do you want to play a leading role in turning around a school that is brimming with potential? If your answer is yes to all of these questions, then I look forward to receiving your application.

We are an equal opportunities employer, and value diversity and inclusion. The successful candidate will join a caring, hard-working and ambitious Jewish community school, and will be supported in fulfilling their own career potential.

Michele Phillips, Headteacher

History, ethos and values

King Solomon High School is a United Synagogue, orthodox Jewish school, who openly welcome students of all faiths and of no faith. The school opened in 1993 to meet the growing demand for Jewish school places in East London, Essex and the surrounding areas. Currently, approximately 20% of students on roll identify as Jewish. We are six form entry school, and the only Jewish school in Essex.

We are a community of learners who look out for and support each other. This idea is embodied in our school values.

- Learning
- Community
- Charity

Our motto encompasses the school's Jewish ethos and values, highlights our aim to develop every student as a rounded and grounded individual through a variety of learning and lived experiences, all infused with Jewish teachings and values. The King Solomon community experience shapes young people into informed, responsible and caring citizens.

If I am not for myself who will be for me?
If I am only for myself, who am I?
If not now, when?

(Ethics of the Fathers 1:14)

Strategic priorities

King Solomon High School is brimming with potential, talent and a dedicated staff and parent community who champion the school.

To move the school from requires improvement to good and then outstanding, we have been reviewing and improving all aspects of the school, with a view to implementing new and innovative systems that embody excellence, ambition and rigour.

Personal development	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide all students with a range of enriching experiences and opportunities to explore their talents and interests.• Provide all students with meaningful opportunities to be responsible, reflective and active citizens.• Develop the school's formal and informal Jewish provision.

Behaviour, safeguarding & personal development

King Solomon High School has rigorous systems in place to support students in meeting our high expectations of behaviour.

- Year 7-11 students line up in the mornings and are collected by their form tutor. This promotes a calm and focussed start to the day.
- We operate a daily detentions system so that behaviour issues are dealt with on the day.
- We have a commitment to disruption free learning, and our on-call system ensures that students who disrupt learning are dealt with swiftly.
- We have an extensive pastoral team to support students who need additional behaviour and/or wellbeing support.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is the responsibility of all staff. We have a strong culture of safeguarding and all staff are proactive in reporting any concerns about a student's welfare.

We recognise the vital role mental health plays in the everyday lives and success of all individuals. Whilst we cannot always remove the challenges our students face, we can provide them with access to support to help them build resilience, emotional intelligence and coping mechanisms.

We have recently reviewed all our behaviour systems and we launched a new behaviour policy in November 2023. Please see the Behaviour Policy on our website.
