

KING'S COLLEGE SCHOOL
ALICANTE

KCA Primary School Early Years Foundation Stage Teacher

Our School

King's College, The British School of Alicante, one of the most sought after British Schools in Spain, is seeking to appoint an inspiring, committed and passionate professional to teach in EYFS.

King's College Alicante is proud to be part of the Inspired Education Group of schools, incorporating over 70 schools across the globe. Inspired is dedicated to providing outstanding academic, sporting and creative opportunities to all pupils and has forged partnerships with major global players including Berklee College and Crimson Education. This is an exciting time to join our school as it undergoes a new phase in its development under Inspired's leadership.

If you are passionate about working with enthusiastic children, teaching mixed attainment groups and see no ceiling on each individual's learning then we'd love to hear from you! An eagerness to contribute to the wider life of the College is essential.

This position IS NOT suitable for NQT/ECTs.

The successful candidate will:

- have more than 2 years experience working in EYFS
- be knowledgeable about the EYFS Framework
- be an inspiring, creative and passionate teacher whose practice is rooted in Quality First Teaching and will share our belief in the importance of supporting and developing the whole child
- strive to help each child unlock their academic and personal potential
- share and demonstrate a belief in the Inspired approach to education where academic performance, sporting opportunities and creative arts are given equal status throughout a child's school experience.
- hold QTS and be familiar with teaching and planning from the EYFS Development Matters and assessing against the same objectives
- understand the role that the learning environment (indoors and out) has on a child's learning and development and provides constant high level learning opportunities for the children in their care
- be able to deploy adults effectively in the classroom to have a positive impact on children's progress
- demonstrate high standards in all aspects of their professional life.
- be excited by the prospect of working for a school judged under the BSO framework to be "outstanding in all areas" and explain what they can bring to that environment.
- be able to adapt teaching methods to support and drive the progress of pupils whose first language may not be English.
- be a dedicated team player, with a "can-do" attitude who contributes positively to the general working environment and possesses an eagerness to contribute to the wider life of the school including enrichment and extracurricular activities.
- be a reflective practitioner with a keen interest in their own personal and professional development and enthusiasm for participating in CPD and peer learning opportunities.
- be fluent in English and demonstrate highly articulate spoken, written & technical language.
- share our strong pastoral ethos and be able to demonstrate a commitment to pastoral care and the crucial role all staff play in developing the "whole" child.
