

TEACHER OF THEOLOGY & PHILOSOPHY

Fixed Term Contract (Maternity Cover)

Full-time or Part-time post from January 2020 to July 2020

Whitgift is one of Britain's leading independent day and boarding schools for boys aged between 10 and 18 years with approximately 1500 pupils and over one hundred boarding or flexi-boarding pupils. The School, which was founded in 1596 by Elizabeth I's last Archbishop of Canterbury, John Whitgift, is one of the oldest in Croydon and enjoys facilities of outstanding quality, amongst the best available nationally. It is set in an attractive 48-acre parkland site in South Croydon with excellent links to London, Surrey and the south coast.

The Department

The Department aims to give pupils the opportunity to discover truth for themselves through a critical evaluation of their own key beliefs and those of others. We concentrate on maintaining rigour in the development of Theological and Philosophical skills whilst, at the same time, acknowledging the unique reflective contribution of this subject to the development of a student's self-awareness. A particular attempt is made to address events which are of importance in the world at large or of particular relevance to the pupil, concentrating on key existential questions such as "Who am I?" and "How do I relate to others?" These questions are approached from a range of theistic as well as secular perspectives, and pupils are encouraged to develop personal responses and articulate their own worldview. We are therefore seeking a dynamic, energetic and imaginative teacher with a strong academic background who can challenge pupils to develop both reflective and academic skills. The post is for an enthusiastic and well-qualified teacher of Theology and Philosophy to deliver the subject throughout the School. This strong and successful department is committed to academic rigour in the study of Theology, World Religions and Philosophy. A willingness to engage with the continuing development of the curriculum is essential.

The Department is currently at an exciting stage of development, with nearly 150 students choosing Theology and Philosophy for iGCSE this September in Year 10 and 11. Theology and Philosophy has an excellent academic reputation at Whitgift and 88% of GCSE candidates obtained a 9 – 7 grade in 2019. At OCR A Level Religious Studies, 90% of students achieved A*-B and 80% received a 7 -6 in IB Philosophy. Each year we have at least 10 students choosing to study Theology and/or Philosophy or PPE at a top university.

GCSE	A* - A or 9 - 7	88%	84%	88%
A Level	A* - B	90%	92%	90%
IB (Higher Level)	7 - 6	80%	100%	100%

Theology and Philosophy is compulsory for all students up to Year 9. The Lower First (Year 6) are introduced to key philosophical and theological questions with a focus on developing skills of genuine enquiry. The First Form (Year 7) are introduced to philosophical reasoning through a study of Socrates followed by a theological unit on the life of Jesus. Throughout Key Stage 3, boys make a systematic study of Christianity, Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, with relevance to the pupil being ensured by a focus on existential questions. In the Third Form (Year 9), students make an academic study of themes in the Philosophy of Religion. In the Fourth and Fifth forms, TP is optional but popular. In the Sixth Form students choose to study A Level Religious Studies or IB Philosophy and we have had three or four sixth form sets as an average each year for the last five years.

The Department is committed to giving all students, examined and non-examined, the opportunity to explore Theological and Philosophical questions. We therefore currently run an Upper School Philosophy Society and Lower School Theology and Philosophy Society. The Department runs a range of visits to places of worship in the local community and has links with visiting speakers from universities.

At present, the teaching of Theology and Philosophy is by a team of six subject specialists. All staff are equipped with laptops and have access to an excellent range of academic materials to support pedagogic development.

Current Vacancy

We are seeking to recruit for January 2020, a gifted and innovative classroom teacher of broad intellectual interests. Candidates should have the ability to capture students' imagination and challenge them according to their ability. The right candidate may be able to teach up to KS5 depending on experience. There will be significant opportunities for contributing to the continued development of the curriculum and exploring new teaching strategies in the Department. We teach in a multi-cultural and multi-faith environment while respecting the School's Christian foundation. This requires sensitivity and respect toward all faiths. A commitment to teaching both Theology and Philosophy to the highest possible standard is assumed.

As a Boarding School, stimulating opportunities may be available for the right candidate to contribute to the pastoral care of students as a Boarding Tutor, both resident and non-resident.
