

KING'S COLLEGE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
BANGKOK

Job description

*"Intellectually exhilarating yet principled...A real golden ticket."
The Good Schools Guide on King's College School, Wimbledon*

Job title

Classroom teacher (early years)

Responsibilities and duties

From August 2020, the school wishes to appoint well-qualified teachers to lead classes of students in the early years. This role is much more than a classroom teacher because you will be doing much more than delivering the curriculum. You will be the key pastoral contact for every child in your class and have an overview of their academic and social progress, you will build strong links with parents and you will help contribute to the house system by supporting and running events throughout the year. As well as that, our teachers help run co-curricular activities throughout the year to provide students with opportunities to explore their interests and develop new hobbies. The setting-up environment has a large number of opportunities for the right candidate as you will be involved with designing and implementing a curriculum, ordering the resources, designing house and school events, and having an input into co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. If you value colleagues who will support you, you are excited by a start-up environment in which we all work hard for each other, and if you have a nurturing approach to education we would welcome you to apply for a position with us.

Overall

- To ensure that each child makes the maximum possible progress, feels safe and enjoys their time at school.
- To be a role model for the children in the values of kindness, good manners and wisdom, work ethic and high standards.
- To have a clear understanding of the needs of all students, including those with SEN, EAL or disabilities and to use distinctive teaching approaches to extend and support all children.
- To take an active role in the co-curricular programme.
- To be dedicated to pastoral care and to be the form tutor for the children in their class.
- To contribute to the effective and efficient running of the school.
- To promote high standards in the use of English as the common language.
- To follow all agreed school policies in the staff handbooks.
- To contribute positively to the ethos of the school.
- To attend meetings and school events, which may take place in the evenings or weekends as required.
- To supervise playtimes and other duties as directed.
- To undertake peer observations.
- To do any reasonable duties as requested by the school.

Professionalism

- To be dedicated to professional development and take part in, and contribute to Inset.
- To be committed to self-reflection and improvement through the annual review system.
- To go the extra mile in helping students in your class with extra support or extension work.
- To work with the other teachers and Learning Enrichment where a student may have special educational needs to ensure that all students reach their potential.
- To plan with the EAL support teacher when they are part of your lesson to ensure that students of all language abilities are supported.
- To promote high standards of behaviour through being positive, friendly and supportive with students.
- To foster strong relationships with parents through regular meetings, reports and weekly newsletters so we all work to help our students together.
