

Whitgift School, South Croydon

Whitgift is an outstanding independent day and boarding school for boys aged 10 to 18. Successive inspections have ranked Whitgift amongst Britain's finest schools.

The School is situated in a beautiful and historic park. A Whitgift education is a unique and exceptionally tailor-made, offering a variety of pathways to qualifications which include A Level, Pre U, the IB and BTEC, with a bilingual section for native French or Spanish speakers. Exchanges, visits and scholarship programmes are in place with more than 25 countries worldwide. Whitgift is regularly ranked amongst the country's top schools for achievement; new records are regularly set.

“Whitgift Outstandingly fulfils its aims and aspirations of very high attainment in all aspects of its provision” ISI inspection Report

Pastoral Care

Exceptional pastoral care is at the foundation of our provision, and each pupil, and his parents, are guaranteed a friendly face to turn to for advice and guidance.

Sport

Whitgift's sport is at the forefront of achievement, with over 120 national titles won in the past five years. More than 40 sports are available, including modern pentathlon, golf, judo and cycling. Many boys represent their country in a wide variety of sports, or go on to pursue a career at the highest level.

Performing Arts

An exciting Performing Arts programme is offered by the School, with first-class musicals and plays performed regularly. Orchestras and choirs tour internationally, and play at major venues, including the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Festival Hall, Cadogan Hall, Goodwood House, and the Royal Pavilion, Brighton. The School enjoys close links with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, enabling pupils to learn side-by-side with professional musicians.

Co-curricular activities

Co-curricular activities at Whitgift feature more than 80 clubs and societies, as diverse as the Investment Society, Animal Club, Astronomy, French Drama, Green Team, and the Sequential Art Club. In addition, Outdoor Education - offering sailing, wakeboarding, skiing, mountain biking and more - introduces boys to new and exciting activities. Alongside the clubs and societies, a wide variety of trips run throughout the year.

The School also gives boys the chance to enter into the Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme, highly regarded by admissions tutors and employers alike.

Furthermore, Whitgift has a well-established Combined Cadet Force, containing elements of all three services - Army, RAF and Royal Navy - and one of the oldest Corps of Drums in the country.

Boarding House

The School's Boarding House, opened in 2013, is superbly-equipped, and offers full, weekly and flexi-boarding to boys aged 13-18. Boarders have cutting-edge IT equipment, private study areas, en-suite bathrooms, and spacious, communal social areas with kitchen facilities.

Bursaries

Whitgift offers generous scholarships and bursaries.
